MACMILLAN TRIP IS NEARING END; KHRUSHCHEV TO VISIT E. GERMANY

West's Experts Think Soviet Premier May Act to Transfer West Berlin Lifelines to German Reds.

LENINGRAD, Russia, Feb. 28 (UPI)—Premier Khrushchev will fly to East Germany as soon as he winds up his apparently stalemated talks with Prime Minister Macmillan next week, it was announced today.

The Soviet agency Tass announced Khrushchev's plans while Macmillan, just arrived here on a tour of Russia's provinces, was calling for East-West negotiations with a warning that "hopes for peace are not enough."

Tass said Khrushchev has accepted an invitation from the East German government to "visit the Leipzig international fair."

(Western experts speculated that Khrushchev's visit to Germany would include negotiations for the transfer of control of West Berlin's lifelines to the German Comunists—and possibly negotiations for a peace treaty with East Germany.

There has been predictions that Khrushchev would seek to negotiate a "separate peace" with Russia's German satellite.)

Plea by Macmillan.

Macmillan, who flew here from Kiev, arriving just before noon, said at the airport "we must work for peace." He said he came to the Soviet Union to try to get an understanding of Russia's point of view on outstanding problems.

"There are many differences between our people, but they are small compared to what we have in common," he said. "We have a vested interest in peace. We fought together to win the war, and now let us fight for peace. If there is some possibility of better understanding of each other, my visit will not have been in vain."

Khrushchev, who was to have accompanied Macmillan on his provincial tour, stayed in Moscow at the last moment, pleading a toothache. Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan put in an unexpected appearance here today to escort Macmillan on his Leningrad tour.

West Encouraged.

Mikoyan's arrival gave encouragement to Western hopes that some diplomatic success might result from Macmillan's visit despite the Khrushchev speech Tuesday which had appeared to kill prospects of agreement.

Soviet newspapers reported a speech made by Mikoyan in Rostov which appeared critical of the British leader. Commenting on reports that Macmillan, after early affability, had taken a firm line with Khrushchev following Tuesday's speech, Mikoyan said.

"We, as the hosts, offered our English guests the chance to say what interested him. One usually starts with the sharp dishes and ends up with something sweet, but our English guests in their talks did just the opposite: They started with the dessert and then went on the bitter dishes."

Quotes Royall.

Mikoyan said also that former United States Army Secretary Kenneth Royall told him in New York last month that he had favored breaking the Berlin blockade in 1948 with tanks, and that he still feels the same way.

"I replied that he should

Police Raid 'De Baliviere Strip' Area, Arrest 11; 2 Are Dancers

Complaints Had Been Received Charging Liquor Law Violations and Indecent Performances.

Eleven persons, including two women dancers, were arrested early today by special police squads in a crackdown on night clubs in the "DeBaliviere Strip" area and on two West End taverns.

The raids, directed by Capt. John Doherty, and carried out by 15 officers of the intelligence and morality squads, followed complaints of alleged violations of the liquor laws and of indecent performances by entertainers, police reported. The liquor violations involved sale of drinks after the legal closing hour, officers said.

At 1:30 a.m. the special details moved into three of the brightly-lighted DeBaliviere avenue establishments and arrested owners and employes.

At the Tic Toc, 417 DeBaliviere, Miss Sylvia Albana, 23 years old, who is advertised as "The Flame of New Orleans," was arrested suspected of performing an indecent dance. Also arrested were Joseph Neu, owner, and Lester J. Moose, the manager, suspected of violating city and state liquor laws.

Mrs. Consuelo Marchbank, who is advertised as "Miss Chelo, tiny mite of the Argentine," was arrested at the Stardust, 309 De Baliviere. She was booked suspected of performing indecent dances.

Mrs. Marchbank, who lives in Los Angeles, told reporters she has appeared in night clubs throughout the United States, and police never before have interfered with her act.

Also arrested at Stardust

PLAZA PROJECT TRUCKS SPILLING MUD ON STREETS

Dirt is flying on the Plaza housing project, but it is also being spilled over the streets in the area, Henry S. Miller, city director of streets, complained to police today.

He protested particularly about quantities of mud collecting in Fifteenth, Pine and Chestnut streets in the area where Fruin-Colnon Contracting Co. is putting up six apartment buildings.

Some of the dirt cannot be avoided, being brought out of the excavations on the wheels of trucks, Miller declared, but he contended that most of the mud results from overloading of trucks, which spill part of their cargo.

"Apparently workers on the project have made no effort to clean the streets in the area," Miller stated.

This sort of thing is not confined to the Plaza project, he added, reporting that careless loading of trucks hauling debris from the Mark Twain Expressway construction project has made Hall street dirty and hazardous.

Miller called for enforcement of ordinances which prohibit overloading of trucks and spilling of dirt on the streets.

GIRL CALLS POLICE TO END DISPUTE, TAKES PATROL CAR

PENNSAUKEN, N.J., Feb. 28 (AP)—An 18-year-old girl with only a learner's driving permit raced off yesterday at speeds of 80 to 120 miles an hour in the patrol car of a policeman she had summoned to break up a dispute between her parents.

Patrolman Nicholas Pitette was met by Miss Florence Cundiff, who telephoned that her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cundiff, were arguing. Pitette said he would have a talk with the father.

When he came out of the house, his car was gone and so was the girl.

Florence came to a sizzling stop in Hammonton, about 35 miles away, when the car's motor and oil pump burned out. She told a motorist she was a policeman's daughter, and he was about to lend a hand when a Hammonton police sergeant appeared and arrested her.

"Why did you do it?" the police asked her.

"I just wanted to go for a ride," she replied.

ARMED BANDS IN GUATEMALA

GUATEMALA CITY, Feb. 28 (UP)—Guatemalan Army patrols were reported pursuing groups of armed men believed to have crossed from Honduras to promote uprisings against the government.

The armed bands entered Guatemala at points along the Minas mountains near the Honduras border.

JURY CRITICIZES POLICE DEPT. IN EAST ST. LOUIS

Every Patrolman Seems to Have Right to Dispute Superior's Order, Report Says.

The East St. Louis police department was severely criticized yesterday by the St. Clair county grand jury.

"The most glaring deficiency appears to be a lack of proper organization and supervision in the police department," the jury stated in its final report. "There appears to be no continuity in the chain of command. There does not seem to be a single police officer in the department with the authority to issue, and then to enforce, his orders. Every patrolman seems to have the right to dispute the authority of a superior by appealing directly to the civilian head of the force (Police Commissioner Russell T. Beebe).

"There also seem to exist two separate police forces within the department. One is the group composed of colored officers and the other is composed of the white officers.

Inquiry Proposed.

"It is our studied opinion that the state's attorney should immediately conduct an investigation into the existing condition of the police department with a view of making known to the City Council of East St. Louis his findings and recommendations."

Morale of members of the department is quite low, the jury said.

Its report complained that many East St. Louis policemen fail to appear when summoned before the jury in routine criminal cases. It said that any witness who ignores a subpena should be brought into court to show cause why he should not be held in contempt.

Police Commissioner Beebe disagreed with the grand jury findings.

"Morale in the police department is at the highest peak in its history," he contended. "The men have the finest working conditions in the state of Illinois."

As police commissioner, he is responsible for operation of the department, but he does not interfere with orders given by the police chief or other ranking officers, Beebe declared.

Taking cognizance of complaints that reports written by police are vague and fail to contain needed information, the commissioner said that classes are being held to instruct new officers, and improvement in the reports is being shown.

As for policemen ignoring

Two Men Rob 62 Others of $655 In Wild West Type Holdup on Bus

RUTHERFORD, N.J., Feb. 28 (AP)—Two robbers, in an eastern version of the old wild west stagecoach holdup, took $655.50 at gunpoint yesterday from 62 persons on a commuter bus from New York.

The men posed as passengers. When the bus emerged from the Lincoln Tunnel under the Hudson river, one of them sitting at the front told bus driver Julius Nagy: "There's going to be a holdup."

"I looked at him and thought he was kidding," Nagy said, "but all of a sudden he pulled out a big automatic, told me not to try anything funny and keep driving normally."

As the bus rolled along, the other robber moved from the rear with a brown duffle bag, taking up the collection among the passengers, some of them standing in the aisle.

"He skipped some of the people in the excitement, I guess because of the standees," Nagy said.

None of the riders spoke. None moved, except to reach for wallet or purse. It was over in 10 minutes.

"When he got to the front," Nagy said, "he looked outside and said to the other one, 'Is that your car?' The guy with the gun said yes so they told me to pull over, let them out and then keep going."

The men alighted and strolled leisurely to the car as the bus disappeared.

There were no service stations handy where Nagy could phone police, so he drove the bus to a garage in Clifton, two miles away. Police questioned the riders and then let them go on.

The man standing over him asked for his wallet, Nagy said.

"I told him I only had a license in it, so he told me he didn't want it. But he took my change carrier with $15.

"Actually I had $7 in the wallet."

RUSSIA RECEIVES AN INFORMATIVE U.S. NOTE ABOUT SHIP BOARDING

Washington Ignoring Comment by Tass and Pravda Calling Cable Investigation Illegal Action.

© New York Times News Service

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 — The United States sent an "informative" note to the Soviet Union yesterday on the boarding of a Soviet fishing trawler by men of the United States Navy radar picket ship Roy O. Hale.

Officials here were unconcerned by a statement by the Soviet news agency Tass that the investigation of severed transoceanic cable lines was "an unlawful action of the American Naval fleet in the open sea."

The Communists organ Pravda, following this up today, described the boarding as an "illegal act."

Authorized by Treaty.

Lincoln White, State Department spokesman, said the Navy's check-up was not provacative. He repeated that it was carried out under the provisions of the international convention for the protection of submarine cables signed in Paris in 1884.

The Navy party of one officer and four enlisted men, who were unarmed, boarded the Russian trawler Novorossisk 125 miles northeast of Newfoundland seeking information in connection with the severing of five transoceanic commercial cables. The Novorossisk is one of a fleet of Soviet vessels that has been operating with drag lines off the Grand Banks fishing area.

White emphasized that the United States's note to the Russians was informative. He said it was not considered that "apologies" were in order, although Lt. Comdr Ernest J. Korte, commander of the Hale, reported the boarding party found "no indication of intentions other than fishing."

Boarding Officer's Report.

It was learned that Lt. Donald M. Sheely, executive officer of the Hale, who headed the boarding party made the following notation in the log of the Soviet ship:

"I have examined the ship's papers and found them to appear regular but the presence of a message drop regarding cut cables indicates further investigation, 1440, inspection completed, departed."

Lt. Sheely referred to a message that had been dropped aboard the Russian vessel earlier in the week by the crew of an airplane chartered by the commercial cable companies. The note was intended to warn the master of the Russian vessel that his ship may have been damaging the commerical lines.

The numerals 1440 referred to the time, 2:40 p.m.

The State Department spokesman said the note sent to Moscow was a "preliminary" one and that others undoubtedly would follow as the investigation continues. The note was sent to the United States embassy in Moscow for transmission to the Soviet government.

OFFICER'S STORY OF BOARDING SHIP

ARGENTINA, N.F., Feb. 28 (AP)—The United States naval lieutenent who searched the Novorossisk says the Soviet trawler "probably quite likely" had something to do with breaking transatlantic cables. But, he emphasizes, "I don't know whether accidentally or intentionally."

Lt. Donald Sheely of Falls Church, Va., told a news conference here last night that the Russians offered no resistance to his boarding party on Thursday and sailed away on being told to leave the Grand Banks area where five cables were broken.

In Sydney, N. S., the Eastern Telegraph & Telephone Co. said a patrol plane had sighted about 20 trawlers — 15 of them Russian — still operating in the area yesterday. The pilot said the ships "just appear to be fishing."

Rough seas and drifting ice held up repairing of the cables. Two Western Union cableships are standing by, but the weather forecast was gloomy for beginning work for some hours.

Break At 1050-foot Depth.

Comdr. Ernest J. Korte of United States Navy radar picket ship Roy O. Hale, who sent the party aboard the trawler, said the cable breaks occurred in about 175 fathoms (1050 feet) of water about 180 miles due east of Cape Bonavista, N.F.

Radioman 3C Roland A. Poulin of Chicopee, Mass., who acted as interpreter for the five-man boarding party, said the trawler's journal "indicated she had been operating . . . in the area where the cable was broken."

The United States Navy men led by Sheely inspected fishing equipment and anything aboard the Novorossisk which looked capable of cutting cable.

"She had been fishing on the

42 DEMOCRATS, 19 REPUBLICANS IN PRIMARY RACE FOR ALDERMEN

Only Two G.O.P. Contests in Even-Numbered Wards—Interest Centers on Board Presidency.

Forty-two Democrats and 19 Republicans filed for party nominations for the Board of Aldermen in the municipal primary March 10 before the filing deadline last night.

There are contests on both tickets for nomination for the board presidency. For nomination for alderman in the 14 even-numbered wards there are 11 Democratic contests but only two Republican contests.

Uncontested Democratic aldermanic nominations are in the Second, Eighteenth and Twenty-fourth Wards. Republican contests are in the Tenth and Twelfth Wards.

Chief interest is centered in the race between Aldermen Alfred I. Harris of the Twenty-second Ward and A. J. Cervantes, Fifteenth Ward, for Democratic nomination for board president.

For Republican nomination for this post Richard L. Garesche, public relations counselor and Twenty-fifth Ward Republican committeeman, had been unopposed until Thursday, when Louis Folkerts, cabinet maker, filed. Yesterday Morton L. Schwartz, attorney and unsuccessful Republican candidate in several previous elections, entered the aldermanic presidency race.

10 Democratic Incumbents.

Ten Democratic incumbent aldermen are seeking renomination. All have opposition except Leo McLaughlin of the Second Ward; Wayman F. Smith, Eighteenth Ward, and Anthony T. Mascazzini, Twenty-fourth Ward.

The lone Republican incumbent seeking renomination, Fred W. Haag, Twelfth Ward, is opposed by Raymond W. Sahlbach, a sales manager, 7520 South Grand avenue.

One candidate, Charles H. Conroy, 5800 DeGiverville avenue, withdrew last night from the contest for Democratic nomination for alderman in the Twenty-eighth Ward, leaving three candidates still in this race.

Complete list of candidates in the aldermanic races follows:

SECOND WARD. Democrats, McLaughlin. Republican, William Cordes, hardware merchant, 3704A North Fourteenth street.

FOURTH WARD. Democrats, T. H. Mayberry, incumbent, 4122 St. Louis avenue, and Nathaniel A. Sweets, editor, 4557A Garfield avenue. Republican, Wilson Gray, lawyer, 4326 Cote Brilliante avenue.

SIXTH WARD. Democrats, Archie Blaine, incumbent, 2601 Walnut street; A. Courtney Davis, lawyer, 522 Pine street, and F. Henry Davis, salesman, 508 Chestnut street. Republican, Rankin S. Brown, retired, 2813A Clark avenue.

EIGHTH WARD. Democrats, Alphonse J. Dufaux, tavern operator, 2116 South Broadway; August C. Eberline, brewery worker, 2402 South Eighteenth street, and Joseph W. Martino, loan company executive and a state representative, 3104 Longfellow boulevard. Republican, August E. Fritsch, bricklayer, 2015 South Third street.

TENTH WARD. Democrats, James E. Geisler, incumbent, 3445A Oregon avenue, and Thomas M. Peters, salesman, 2849A Osage street. Republicans, George A. Willis, private detective, 3426A Winnebago street, and William Hake, bookkeeper, 3719 South Jefferson avenue.

TWELFTH WARD. Democrats, Joseph L. Ruzicka, insurance man, 8132 Wanda avenue, and Nicholas Hummel, production manager, 3623 Blow street. Republicans, Haag and Sahlbach.

FOURTEENTH WARD. Democrats, Joseph E. Kavanaugh, incumbent, 3646 Wyoming street; Marvin Breitenfeld, salesman, 3902A Utah street;

400 STUDENTS EAT GOOD BREAKFAST, SEEM TO LIKE IT

PEARL RIVER, N.Y., Feb. 28 (AP) — Students at the Pearl River junior-senior high school seem to agree that a hearty breakfast may aid learning.

As the climax of a two-week nutrition drive, the school held a mass breakfast yesterday. Of 640 students, about 400 showed up and consumed an "ideal" morning meal of juice, cereal, milk, toast, jelly and an egg. The cost was 15 cents, since most of the food was contributed by local concerns.

Principal Walter Reiner said teachers have complained that students showed restlessness and lack of attention during late morning class sessions.

Reiner, hoping good breakfasts would eliminate that fidgety feeling, said, "Now it is up to the parents and students to carry the ball."

POST-DISPATCH BUYS BUILDINGS, EQUIPMENT OF GLOBE-DEMOCRAT

Collie's Barks Bring Rescuers To Boy, 3, Sinking in Mudhole

—By a Post-Dispatch Photographer.

THOMAS ABEL and his dog, Lady.

Utility Workmen Use a Rope to Pull Out Child Who Is Mired to Waist.

Lady, a young collie shepherd which somebody left on St. Louis Patrolman Walter Abel's doorstep last summer, helped save the life of Abel's 3-year-old son, Thomas, yesterday.

The boy wandered away from his home at 2230 Pecan drive, Lemay, about 12:45 p.m. His father, who was off duty, organized a neighborhood search after Tommy's disappearance was discovered. The boy could not be found.

Meanwhile, Tommy was playing near a large pool of water behind a business establishment in the 3900 block of Reavis Barracks road, several blocks away. He walked around in the mud for a while with lady and then began sinking in some deep, muddy clay.

The more he struggled the deeper he sank, until he had become mired to his waist. His cries and screams were unheard.

Lady started barking. She made such a racket that a Union Electric Co. repair crew, working nearby, came over to investigate. Members of the crew pulled the still sinking Tommy out of the mud with a rope.

Tommy was brought home, muddy but triumphant, three hours after his disappearance. His protector, Lady, trotted beside him.

When Mrs. Abel, mother of four other children, asked why he had left the Abel yard, Tommy had a ready answer.

"Lady told me to take a walk to the mudhole," he said.

DAVE BECK GETS 5 YEARS; JUDGE DENOUNCES HIM

'Sad and Shocking Story,' Court Says in Passing Sentence for Tax Evasion.

(Picture on Page 2A)

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 28 (AP)—Former Teamster Union President Dave Beck received a five-year sentence and was fined $60,000 late yesterday for income tax evasion.

"The exposure of Mr. Beck's insatiable greed, resulting in his fall from high place, is a sad and shocking story," said United States District Judge George Boldt, in a scathing, 20-minute lecture before passing sentence.

Beck quickly posted $70,961 to cover the fine and court costs and was released. After his conviction Feb. 19, Beck spent a night behind bars for the first time in his life. Appeal bond then was set.

A motion for a new trial was denied yesterday.

The Government could claim more than $500,000 from Beck.

He was charged with evading $240,607 for the years 1950-53, but the Government raised its estimate of the amount actually owed to $258,636. In addition to the fine and court costs, a 50 per cent fraud penalty of $129,318 and $96,996 in interest at 6 per cent brings the total to $555,911.

Beck, 64 years old, stood calm and quiet, one hand clenched behind his back and the other in a trouser pocket as the judge began his denouncement.

He refused two invitations to address the court, but later he told reporters, "I am not the first innocent person to be sentenced nor will I be the last. . . ."

Judge Boldt said Beck's rise from a laundry truck driver to millionaire labor leader was a better rags-to-riches story than any of Horatio Alger's plots, but he said "Beck must take first place among the more than 50 tax evaders I have sentenced."

"Beck plundered his union, his intimate associates and in some instances his personal friends," the judge said.

5 SOVIET SHIPS ANCHORED OFF PHILIPPINES DETAINED

3 Cargo Ships, 2 Trawlers Held By Naval Authorities.

MANILA, Feb. 28 (UPI)—Philippine navy authorities today detained five Russian vessels which anchored yesterday a mile off the shoreline of the northern province of Ilocos Norte.

Defense Secretary Jesus Vargas ordered the detention of the ships and all their crew members. A Defense Department said Vargas also dispatched a boarding party to determine why they were in Philippine territorial waters.

A Navy spokesman said an initial report from the Navy ship Pangasinan, which rushed to the scene earlier today, said there were three cargo ships and two trawlers, all flying Russian flags.

Beauty Winner Pretty Busy, Spins Wheel to Pick Successor

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP) —Miss Bonnie Peterson of Virginia, Minn., was elected Minnesota Cherry Blossom Princess last night—but only after another Minnesota girl was chosen and promptly abdicated.

A spin of the wheel at the meeting of the Minnesota Society gave the honor first to Miss Lois Knapp of St. Peter, Minn.

Miss Knapp announced that because of her medical studies here she would not be able to give the time to serving as princess.

"I really should not have competed," she said, "but I did not believe I had a chance." She received rousing cheers as she volunteered to spin the wheel herself for a successor. This time Miss Peterson received the lucky number.

Miss Peterson, a senior at Washington and Lee high school at Arlington, Va., was one of 13 candidates.

MORNING PAPER TO BE PRINTED UNDER CONTRACT BY PULITZER CO.

Both Newspapers Will Retain Separate Identities and News, Editorial, Ad and Circulation Policies.

The Pulitzer Publishing Co., publisher of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, has purchased the buildings and printing equipment of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat at 1133 Franklin avenue and will begin the printing of the Globe-Democrat under contract upon the termination of the existing strike by the Newspaper Guild against the Globe-Democrat.

The Globe-Democrat remains the property of S. I. Newhouse, and both newspapers will retain their separate identities and their separate news, editorial, advertising and circulation policies, so that St. Louis will continue to have two independent daily newspapers.

The Post-Dispatch for some time has urgently been in need of additional space for its printing plant and offices and had acquired a tract of land facing on Oakland avenue, upon which it proposed to erect new buildings.

Urged to Stay Downtown.

However, a number of business concerns with which the Pulitzer Publishing Co. has worked in an effort to rebuild the downtown business area of St. Louis have urged the company not to leave this area.

The printing plant and general offices of the Globe-Democrat contain an excess of space not required by that newspaper.

The Post-Dispatch also is urgently in need of additional and more modern equipment for printing its newspapers.

The printing equipment of the Post-Dispatch and of the Globe-Democrat combined in the buildings occupied by the Globe-Democrat will be capable of printing both newspapers, and the buildings will provide adequate warehouse space for the storage of newsprint and other materials and will also provide adequate space for the general offices of the Post-Dispatch.

Since labor, material and other costs have risen sharply in the newspaper industry, it was determined that a more economical operation would be possible for both newspapers if they were printed from one printing plant.

Independent Policies.

Newhouse, therefore, agreed to sell the buildings of the Globe-Democrat, together with all of the presses, machinery and equipment comprising the newspaper printing plant and entered into a contract under which the Pulitzer Publishing Co. will print the Globe-Democrat upon the termination of the present strike by the Newspaper Guild against the Globe-Democrat. The management of both newspapers emphasized the fact that the Post-Dispatch and the Globe-Democrat each retains its identity and that neither newspaper will have any control over the news or advertising of the other, or with its news, editorial, circulation or advertising policies or practices.

The Post-Dispatch yesterday acquired title to the Globe-Democrat's real estate and printing equipment and will begin soon installing its own machinery from the Post-Dispatch printing plant at 1111 Olive street in the buildings at 1133 Franklin avenue.

The news and business offices of the Post-Dispatch which now occupy its building at 12th and Olive streets will also be transferred to the former Globe-Democrat buildings as soon as the Globe-Democrat leases space to which it can move its own news and business offices.

Each newspaper will continue as in the past to compete in news coverage, advertising and circulation.

'Weekend Edition.'

Richard H. Amberg, publisher of the Globe-Democrat said the Globe-Democrat probably will publish a "weekend edition" instead of a Sunday paper when the printing plants are consolidated.

A "weekend edition" would be published on Saturday, but would carry a Saturday-Sunday dateline, he said. The price probably will be 10 cents, Amberg stated. He said the Chicago Daily News and other newspapers have a "weekend editions."

The Globe-Democrat will retain its delivery service after

HOFFA INVITES MILLION NOW IN SMALL UNIONS TO JOIN TEAMSTERS

Says Plan to Take Over 10,000 Standard Oil Workers is Well Along—Clash With AFL-CIO Likely.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 28 (AP)—Teamsters union chief James R. Hoffa hung out a welcome sign today for an estimated 1,000,000 members of unaffiliated unions to transfer their organizations into his truck drivers union.

Hoffa disclosed yesterday he is well on with negotiations to take over 10,000 Standard Oil refinery workers. He said the door is open for any other independent union group—those outside the AFL-CIO—to get under the Teamsters banner.

"We'll take in any group that wants to come in," Hoffa said. "We have a lot of independents contacting us. They feel they need our strong bargaining power."

The Teamsters, ousted from the AFL-CIO on corruption charges, already are the biggest labor union in the nation, claiming more than 1,600,000 members.

Tax Test Planned.

Meanwhile, Teamsters union executive board members winding up winter sessions in Miami Beach decided to launch a legal test of the right of the Federal Government to continue collecting income taxes on union-paid strike or lockout benefits received by workers.

A federal court of appeals in Chicago held recently that strike benefits paid to a nonunion member were untaxable as a donation. This case involved benefits paid by the United Auto Workers in the long strike against the Kohler Co., a plumbing firm at Kohler, Wis.

Teamster attorneys, encouraged by this decision to challenge income tax liability on any type of strike benefit, now have been given a go-ahead to initiate litigation.

Hoffa's campaign to absorb the independent unions is similar to one operated by United Mine Worker boss John L. Lewis, whose District 50 organization is a catch-all for any type of worker groups.

Sears Strike Authorized.

The Teamsters board has given Hoffa authority to call a strike against Sears, Roebuck and Co. The union is trying to organize Sears mail order, warehouse and truck driver employes across the country.

Hoffa's efforts among refinery workers will clash head-on with District 50 oil industries organizers as well as that of the AFL-CIO's own Oil Workers union.

The teamsters already represent truck drivers handling oil products, as well as pipeline and oil bulk plant workers, but never have invaded the refining end of the business. Hoffa's ambitious organizing plans, which he expands almost daily, appear bound to result in organizing warfare with AFL-CIO unions.

Charter's Jewelry Union.

As an example of the Teamsters' open-door policy, Hoffa issued a Teamster charter today to an independent unit of 3000 workers formerly affiliated with the AFL-CIO International Jewelry Workers union. These workers make toys, trinkets and costume jewelry.

Last night, speaking at a dinner in Philadelphia, Hoffa said his union has temporarily shelved efforts to organize the nation's police departments.

But it is moving ahead strongly, he said, in unionizing the huge vending machine industry.

The union's executive board approved a contract to put the union's 6700 shop stewards under bond to help safeguard dues money they collect.

The board decided to hold a spring meeting in San Francisco at a date yet to be fixed.

Vatican Stamp Issue.

VATICAN CITY, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Vatican announced today that the first series of stamps bearing the image of Pope John XXIII will be issued April 2. The series will include four valuations of stamps.

CUBAN IS GRANTED MERCY, PROTESTS FORCE EXECUTION

HAVANA, Feb. 28 (UPI)—Angry residents of Pinar del Rio forced the execution yesterday of a former Batista army intelligence officer whose death sentence had been commuted.

Lt. Julion Fernandez Riquer was the 365th "war criminal" to go before the firing squad. He had been sentenced to death, but an appeals board commuted the sentence to 20 years imprisonment.

The board reversed its decision, however, when residents of the city, led by rebel provincial commander Dermidio Escalona, accused it of "anti-revolutionary activity."

Residents of Palma Soriano, also in Oriente Province, seized the government offices and paralyzed the city's commerce to force the immediate execution of "war criminals" convicted there. They acted after a 72-hour delay in executions in the city.

STRIKE OF PAN AMERICAN EMPLOYES IS AVERTED

NEW YORK, Feb. 28 (AP)—A threatened strike Monday by 8000 employes of Pan American World Airways has been averted. Agreement "in principle" was reached over night Francis A. O'Neill Jr., a member of the national mediation board said today.

The Transport Workers Union negotiating committee will vote on the agreement, which will then go before the membership for ratification. O'Neill said the agreement concerns "wages, rules and working conditions," but would not specify further. A shorter work week has been a major objective of the union, which represents ground and air personnel such as stewards, stewardesses, mechanics and pursers. The workers involved now work either a 37½ or a 40-hour week.

NEW SEGNI GOVERNMENT WINS OK OF DEPUTIES

ROME, Feb. 28 (AP)—Premier Segni's new government won indorsement of Italy's Chamber of Deputies last night.

The one-party minority government of Christian Democrats was victorious in its first parliamentary vote of confidence because of support from rightist parties. The vote was 333 to 248, with one abstention.

Communists and Socialists lined up against Segni. Free-Enterprise Liberals, right-wing Monarchists and Fascists voted solidly for him along with his own Christian Democrats, who must seek support from other parties because they have less than a majority in Parliament.

R. B. STRASSBURGER DIES IN PARIS; U.S. PUBLISHER

PARIS, Feb. 28 (AP)—Ralph Beaver Strassburger, American publisher and racehorse breeder, died Thursday at his home here. He was 75 years old.

Publisher of the Times Herald in Norristown, Pa., where he was born, Mr. Strassburger first acquired property in France 35 years ago and has lived here periodically since then. His stud farm Haras des Monceaux is one of the best on the Continent. He owned Worden, which won the 1953 Washington International, and Mahan, which he sent to the International in 1955.

Mr. Strassburger is survived by his wife and a son.

CAMEROONS PLAN TO U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Feb. 28 (UPI)—A five-power draft resolution to end United Nations trusteeship over the French Cameroons on attainment of independence next Jan. 1 was formally submitted to the United Nations General Assembly's Trusteeship Committee yesterday.

The proposal was sponsored by Haiti, Italy, New Zealand, Paraguay and the United States, all of whom had sponsored a similar resolution adopted by the Trusteeship Council Feb. 17.

CONSULTANTS SEE DULLES, PLEASED ABOUT PROGRESS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—Medical consultants called in to help treat Secretary of State John Foster Dulles for cancer reported today they were gratified at the progress he has made in the last 12 days.

The State Department passed on to reporters the opinion expressed by Dr. I. S. Ravdin, professor of surgery at the University of Pennsylvania Medical School, and Dr. Gordon Zubrod, clinical director of the National Cancer Institute here.

The two were called in for consultation by Maj. Gen. Leonard D. Heaton, commandant of Walter Reed Army Medical Center, where Dulles is undergoing X-ray treatments for glandular cancer in the abdomen.

A State Department spokesman said the doctors declared themselves "gratified to note the progress which the Secretary has made since their last visit" Feb. 17.

Dulles's strength is increasing, the spokesman said. He is eating well and he has been able to tolerate the X-ray treatments. The treatments began Feb. 20.

PRISON EMPLOYE OUSTED, MAILED CONVICTS' LETTERS

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 28—Paul Gero, an employe of the Missouri State Penitentiary here, has been discharged for "disgraceful conduct bringing the public service into disrepute," Col. J. D. Carter, director of the Department of Corrections, announced yesterday.

The formal charge was brought at a hearing under the merit system law in which Gero was accused of mailing letters for prisoners and of bringing benzedrine to inmates.

AFRICAN LEADER DEFIES BRITISH OVER HIS ARREST

Jailing Would Solve Nothing, Nyasaland Chief Says — New Riots in Continent.

BLANTYRE, Nyasaland, Feb. 28 (AP) — British authorities trying to sooth mounting unrest in the Central African Federation were warned by the African nationalist leader in Nyasaland that jailing him would solve nothing.

Dr. Hastings Banda, whose agitation for independence sparked the uprising in the protectorate, told reporters last night "they stop nothing by arresting me. Nyasaland is now awake. Whether I am dead, alive or in jail, Nyasaland is aware."

The 54-year-old London-trained physician spoke his defiance with an eye on neighboring Southern Rhodesia, which has rounded up 435 nationalist leaders in the governing territory of the federation.

The quiet that has prevailed in the third partner in the federation — Northern Rhodesia — was broken last night but it was the whites who did the demonstrating.

Attempt To Mob M.P.

A crowd attempted to mob a visiting British Member of Parliament, John Stonehouse, at Ndola airport and accused the white legislator of stirring tension in the federation.

John Roberts, leader of the United Federal party in Northern Rhodesia, telegraphed British Labor party leader Hugh Gaitskell suggesting he silence Stonehouse.

Stonehouse said later "if this is what happens when you talk of human rights, then there is something wrong. My whole point was to preach racial friendship."

Nyasaland security forces broke up an African demonstration with guns and tear gas near Blantyre yesterday. One African was killed and two others were wounded.

British authorities said the trouble began when 200 Africans gathered outside the courthouse at Chigaru and demanded the release of two African National Congress officials on trial inside. Security forces ordered the crowd to disperse. When the demonstrators refused to budge, the soldiers opend up with team gas, then fired four rounds of rifle shots.

Transit Halted.

In the Belgian Congo, a strike of 1100 African transport workers halted all public transportation in Leopoldville, the capital.

In the Union of South Africa two clashes were reported between police and African women who resented the issue of pass books under the country's racial segregation laws.

EXPERT PREDICTS $30,000,000,000 RISE IN OUTPUT

Eisenhower's Chief Economic Adviser Also Forecasts Cut in Unemployment.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP) — President Eisenhower's top economist yesterday forecast a 30 billion dollar increase in the nation's production rate this year. He also predicted a reduction in unemployment to a level close to 3,000,000 by next December.

Dr. Raymond J. Saulnier, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, rebuffed recent suggestions that the business recovery is faltering. He was almost unreservedly optimistic in the first address he has ever delivered in Washington.

"I have the distinct feeling," Saulnier told an audience of newsmen at the National Press Club, "that the 1960 prospect is just as good as, if not better than, the 1959 outlook."

The whole peroid from now until 1965 will be one in which an explosive growth in working-age population will provide opportunity for very rapid economic growth, Saulnier said.

But this will not be possible if price inflation resumes, he cautioned. It cannot be achieved without heavy investment in plant and equipment made possible by a high rate of money saving, he explained, and the saving will not occur in adequate volume if citizens expect inflation to eat away any nest eggs they accumulate.

Subjected to a barrage of questions after his brief talk, Saulnier said there is "a very good chance" the country's production will reach a rate of 480 billion dollars annually by the end of this year.

This is a higher rate than the Treasury used in estimating tax revenues for Mr. Eisenhower's fiscal 1960 budget. It compares with a rate in final quarter of 1958 of about $451,500,000,000.

Midwest Is Said to Lag in Economic Recovery.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28 (UPI)—The midwest is lagging a little behind the nation in moving toward economic recovery from the recession of the last two years, Carl B. Allen, president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, said today.

Allen said in the bank's 1958 annual report that the nation hit the end of a "sharp decline" last April and has since been experiencing a "sharp upturn," but that the Midwest was slightly behind because it was hit harder.

Allen said the Midwest felt the recession more mainly because of the sharp liquidation of inventories in consumer and producer durables and nearly one-third drop in car sales for the year. He said the result was the Midwest industrial centers, mainly Milwaukee and Detroit, suffered severe cutbacks during 1958.

Allen said, however, that Midwest agricultural interests shared with the nation in record 1958 crops and that farm cash receipts were 13 per cent above 1957.

Record Wheat Carryover.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (UPI) — The Department of Agriculture estimated yesterday that wheat carryover July 1 will rise to a record 1,285,000,000 bushels and shoot up another 200,000,000 bushels next year.

Army Maintains Its Secrecy On Firing Time for Moon Shot

But Favorable Relation of Earth and Moon Indicate Weekend Effort—Other Rocket Activities.

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla., Feb. 28 (AP) — The United States is ready to try again to shoot a satellite past the moon and into orbit around the sun.

The Army moon-shoot appears likely this weekend, although the exact time still is a secret.

Preliminaries in the big weekend space show were:

Launching of an 80-foot Thor-Able rocket early today on a 5000-mile I.C.B.M. nose cone recovery test.

Successful firing of a 28-foot Jupiter missile yesterday over a 1700-mile range to test its tactical ballistic shell, nose cone, engine, warhead and fusing system.

Launching of the Navy's Polaris nuclear submarine rocket yesterday.

The Navy later said the Polaris may have broken up soon after it disappeared into the clouds, although considerable test data was recorded. Three of four earlier Polaris firings were unsuccessful.

Moon Rocket Details.

The Army moon rocket is a four-stage Juno II—a Jupiter surmounted with three successive stages of Sergeant rockets.

Its role will be to hurl a 13-pound satellite loaded with radiation equipment past the moon to become an artificial planet whirling around the sun.

The first and second stages of the Juno II rocket will be in a spinning bucket to give stability in flight. There will be 11 of the solid-fuel Sergeant rockets in the second stage, three in the third. The fourth stage will be one Sergeant rocket to which the small satellite will be attached.

The planes of the earth and moon are now in the best relation—with the moon about 220,000 miles from the earth.

Previous Efforts.

The first Army moon-shoot last Dec. 6 climbed 64,000 miles. The Pioneer II rocket fired by the Air Force last Nov. 8 reached 71,000 miles.

The Russians have claimed they sent a space probe past the moon early this year.

The Thor-Able fired early today shot through the clouds with a brilliant flash at the start of the nose cone recovery test—the fifth of a series. The first four failed.

The rocket was equnipped with a guidance system of the new Titan I.C.B.M. to direct a knob-shaped nose cone to a patch of water far out at sea. A fleet of recovery ships awaited the nose cone's return in the vicinity of Ascension Island, the terminal point of the Atlantic missile range. It was not definite when results might be announced.

Satellite Launching From West Coast Scheduled.

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif., Feb. 28 (UPI)—Another attempt to launch the first satellite from the West Coast was tentatively scheduled today.

While the Air Force made no official announcement concerning a new attempt, which will be the third, it was learned the two stage vehicle has been prepared for another try with today picked as the likely date.

The vehicle which scientists hope will blast a 1300-pound satellite into polar orbit around the earth never has been fired although "countdown" procedure has numerous times approached within minutes and even seconds of blastoff.

The latest attempt was made last Wednesday. Several times, the Air Force-scientist team counted down within mere seconds of launching only to declare delays, or "holds." Some delays in firing are part of planned procedure to enable technicians to make last-minute checks of the space vehicle.

Spokesmen blamed technical difficulties for other delays. Finally, the shot was postponed for "technical reasons."

EIGHT KILLED AT GAME WHEN ROOF FALLS IN

Arena in Ontario Gives Way Under Snow as Boy Hockey Players Practice.

LISTOWEL, Ont., Feb. 28 (AP — The snow - weighted roof of the Listowel Arena collapsed today during a boys' hockey league practice game. Seven children under 12 years old and one adult were killed. Fourteen persons were injured.

Twenty-five children and two adults were in the building. Seventeen were taken out. One of the dead was Listowel recreation director Kenneth McLeod. Coach Norm Stirling was the other adult in the building, but it was not known whether he was killed.

Some of the injured were reported in serious condition at a hospital.

Percy Knoblauch, manager of the arena on the eastern outskirts of this town of 3530, said he was standing at the entrance when the walls buckled. Then the roof caved in. Only the entrance of the arena, built five years ago, remained standing. It was reported that the roof had been constructed to withstand a heavy weight of snow.

After the collapse at 9:30 a.m., station wagons started a shuttle service with the injured between the arena and Memorial Hospital two blocks away. Residents flocked to the arena to give assistance. Some worked to revive the rescued youngsters.

Listowel, 25 miles northwest of Kitchener, is in Ontario's snowbelt. About 25 inches of snow was reported in the area.

There have been other roof collapses in the belt this winter. Three persons were killed and eight injured Jan. 24 when the roof of a curling rink collapsed at Hotel Britannia, a Lake of Bays holiday resort near Huntsville, 47 miles north of Orillia.

Windsors in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28 (AP) — The Duke and Duchess of Windsor, with three pug dogs, two secretaries, a valet and 52 pieces of luggage, were in Chicago yesterday en route to Arizona. While the Duchess rested in a hotel, the former King of England took a quick look at the city with the British consul-general, Robert Whyte Mason. The couple boarded a train for Tucson, where they will spend a three-week holiday.

BRICK WORKER LOCAL FILES SUIT TO END TRUSTEESHIP

125 Members of No. 803 Take Action Against International —Injunction Hearing to Be Thursday.

A suit for an injunction which would dissolve an international union trusteeship imposed on Local 803, United Brick and Clay Workers, was filed yesterday in circuit court by 125 members of the local.

The plaintiffs asked the court to restrain Edward McKay, special trustee, and George Popovsky, international representative, from "controlling, managing or undertaking to act in any way" on affairs of the union here.

Local 803, which has about 350 members, represents employes of the Laclede Christy Co., a division of H. K. Porter Co., Inc. The firm manufactures fire brick and related products in plants at 5900 Manchester avenue and 4705 Ridgewood avenue.

Circuit Judge O. P. Owen ordered a hearing on the petition for next Thursday to determine whether a restraining order should be issued.

Details of Petition.

The petition stated that McKay took control of all business affairs, property and records of the local last Nov. 26 at the direction of H. R. Flegal of Chicago, international president of the union.

Duly elected officers of the local were suspended by McKay, the petition said, and relieved of duty. They were directed to turn over all of their records and funds to the trustee.

Willie Bryant, the deposed president, said today that the notice of trusteeship charged that the Local 803 membership had "become indifferent to the management and operation of the local." Members asked for a clarification of the order and if there were union provisions for an appeal, he said, but received no answer.

Hearings on the charge were held last Tuesday and Wednesday at the Claridge Hotel, Bryant said, and were recessed until a later date. Bryant said he was charged with buying a brief case, stapler and box of staples without proper authority.

Report on Closings.

Another charge introduced at one of the hearings was that members of the union had set up a project to obtain employment at other plants after it was learned there were plans to close the Laclede Christy plants Nov. 21. The plants were not closed as scheduled, Bryant said.

The international charged that a vote was not held on the undertaking. Bryant said there was a vote.

The suit alleged that McKay and Popovsky have been guilty of "gross mismanagement and abuse of authority" in handling the local's affairs because of their refusal to permit the membership to elect officers, call meetings and meet to discuss their affairs.

Flegal's order and appointment of McKay violated three sections of the union constitution, the petition said, and are "unconstitutional, illegal, unreasonable and void." Federal and state constitutional rights also were violated, it was said.

In addition to seeking a temporary restraining order and a final injunction, the union members asked that McKay and Popovsky account for all funds, property and records belonging to the union which are now in their possession.

Plea on Local Officers.

It also was requested that the local officers elected last April 3 be returned to office.

McKay and Popovsky declined to comment on the suit.

The Laclede-Christy Co., which has been in business in St. Louis for about 110 years, was acquired by H. K. Porter, Inc., of Pittsburgh, in 1954. In addition to fire brick it manufactures high temperature cement and other clay and plastic products.

OFFICER BURRIDGE RETIRES

TWO KNOCKED DOWN IN STREET HOLDUPS

Man Dragged Into Parking Lot—Five Others Held Up.

Ollie Bush, 1422 North Taylor avenue, suffered a severe head injury when he was knocked down by a robber in the 4600 block of Olive street last night.

Bush said the robber struck him from behind, dragged him into a parking lot and stole $28. The assailant fled on foot. Bush is in Homer G. Phillips Hospital.

Mrs. Mary Jane Slover, 35 years old, was knocked down and kicked by a youth, who stole her purse containing $30 yesterday. Mrs. Slover was walking near her home, 2930 Glasgow avenue, when the youth, about 16 years old, knocked her down. She was treated at City Hospital for injuries of the side and leg.

Saul Weissman, an insurance collector, was seized by three men, who beat him and robbed him of $128 in the 4100 block of Labadie avenue last night. Weissman lives at 6108 Gambleton place.

Mrs. Leonard Barcheck was held up in her husband's liquor store, 4742 Natural Bridge avenue, last night by two men who purchased whisky and then drew revolvers. The robbers stole $62 and fled. At the door they passed Barcheck, who was entering with two customers.

Paul Skvaro, operator of a filling station at 1929 North Kingshighway, was robbed of $102 last night by two men who ordered flashlight batteries and then displayed a revolver. The robbers fled on foot.

Ned Ivanoff, operator of a confectionery, was held up by two youths who drank soda water in the store, 4529 Eichelberger street, before one drew a revolver." O.K. Pop, it is a stickup," the armed youth announced. The pair stole $36 and fled.

Miss Mary Beck, a Government office clerk, 720A Winstanley avenue, East St. Louis, was robbed of $130 last night by a man who jumped into her automobile at a stop sign at Thirteenth street and Broadway, East St. Louis. The man choked her and threatened her with a revolver. He took the money and fled.

MRS. VIRGIL LOEB ESTATE IS INVENTORIED AT $467,883

The estate of Mrs. Virgil Loeb, civic leader, was valued at $467,883 in an inventory filed yesterday in probate court. Mrs. Loeb, who lived at 4406 McPherson avenue, died Jan. 24. Her husband, a St. Louis physician and dentist died in 1956.

Principal assets in the estate were corporation stocks with a current market value of $365,488; cash, $5466, and a $90,000 interest in the estate of a brother, Mark C. Meltzer Jr., New York.

Under terms of her will, filed earlier, she left $10,000 for the benefit of a grandson, Anthony M. Deutch, and the rest in equal shares to her two daughters, Mrs. Max Deutch and Mrs. Norman Bierman, and a son, Dr. Virgil Loeb Jr., all of St. Louis.

Funeral services for Mrs. David J. Hyde Sr., widow of the founder of Hyde Heating and Sheet Metal Works, will be at 9 a.m. Monday at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church, 7148 Forsyth boulevard, University City. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery.

Mrs. Hyde, 69 years old, died at DePaul Hospital yesterday of a heart ailment. She lived at 7355 Kingsbury boulevard, University City. The firm founded by her husband, who died in 1945, is located at 4854 Page boulevard.

Survivors include two sons, David J. Hyde Jr. and James B. Hyde, and two daughters, Mrs. Myron D. Mills and Miss Mary L. Hyde.

Taipei-Tokyo Trade Talks.

TAIPEI, Formosa, Feb. 28 (AP) — Nationalist China has agreed to Japan's proposal to open talks for a new trade pact at Tokyo March 9. The present one-year trade pact expires March 31.

Newspapers

the Post-Dispatch begins printing the newspaper, Amberg said.

Statement by Amberg.

After announcement of the transaction, Amberg issued the following statement:

"To effect greater economy and efficiency in mechanical operation, the Globe-Democrat today entered into an agreement with the St. Louis Post-Dispatch under which the Globe-Democrat will be printed by the Post-Dispatch, when and if the Guild strike is settled.

"The sale is of the physical property only. The editorial, advertising, circulation and business departments of the two newspapers will be entirely separate. The Globe-Democrat will continue as a completely independent newspaper in every sense of the word.

"The consolidation of mechanical operations between competing newspapers finds great precedent in many cities throughout America, a list which we suspect may grow larger in the future as the mechanical costs of publishing a daily newspaper continue to rise. The editorial, advertising, circulation and business independence of these newspapers has not in any way been affected. I assure you that it will not be affected in St. Louis.

"This move is made necessary because of the demands of the St. Louis Newspaper Guild. The third and by far the least expensive proposal of the Guild would cost this newspaper, as I have pointed out several times in the past week, approximately $550,000 a year for 20 years for all our employes. This newspaper has never made as much as $550,000 a year profit in the years that I have been in St. Louis nor in the previous years stretching back to the boom days of the war. There are no prospects in the foreseeable future for making profits in this amount.

"We have offered the guild in the past a retirement plan with every conceivable guarantee that Globe-Democrat employes under Guild jurisdiction would continue to receive amounts when they retire at least equal to those they would receive under the Pulitzer Pension Plan. We repeat that offer. We believe this, with guarantees in writing, would be acceptable to the overwhelming number of our employes presently on strike, if it were available to them by vote by secret ballot. We repeat these assurances to our employes now.

"In addition, all Globe-Democrat employes, Guild and non-Guild, presently on the retired list will be continued under the present plan with all present benefits for their lifetime.

"If members of the mechanical unions all cannot be employed elsewhere, the dismissal provisions of the current mechanical contracts will apply.

"The Globe-Democrat is proud of its record of 107 years of public service. Many people, and especially during the past week during which they have been deprived of their Globe-Democrat, have told us that The Globe-Democrat is greatly needed in St. Louis and in the nation and that their lives are poorer without it.

"I can assure you that The Globe-Democrat will continue in the future, as it has in the past, as an independent newspaper and as a mighty force for good in St. Louis, in Missouri and in America."

Session on Strike.

Meanwhile, leaders of the Guild and representatives of the Globe-Democrat management were to meet this afternoon on the newspaper's proposal for settling the strike, which began last Saturday.

The meeting, to be held in the office of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service here, was requested by the union after the Globe-Democrat presented its proposal yesterday for a pension plan.

G. Duncan Bauman, the newspaper's personnel manager, said the management had offered the Guild a pension plan that provided benefits equal to those of the plan in effect at the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

However, the Guild, referring to the Globe-Democrat's proposal, said:

"While pretending to offer the Pulitzer plan, they omitted the most vital part—the security provisions of the Pulitzer plan."

332 Represented By Union.

The union, which represents 332 news, business office and building service employes at the Globe-Democrat, called a strike in support of its demand for a guaranteed pension plan. Publication of the newspaper has been suspended since the walkout began.

A statement announcing the printing contract and sale of the building and printing equipment to the Post-Dispatch was made at the time the Globe-Democrat offered its proposal for settling the strike yesterday.

The Guild's statement on the Globe-Democrat pension proposal said:

"Instead of offering pension security to the Guild, the Globe-Democrat proposed to take away job security.

"The company asked the right to change methods of operation and to discharge employes they termed not necessary as the result of these changes in operation.

"The company is proposing definite changes which would imperil the jobs of dozens of our members.

"Among other things, it asked for unrestricted suburban edition operations, in which it could employ part-time, apprentice reporters, who would have no regular hours or job security, instead of journeyman reporters protected fully by the Guild contract.

"It asked the right to effect so-called economy discharges without the advance notice now required by the contract.

"Our members who have faced insecurity in retirement now would face insecurity in employment."

Union Contention on Sale.

The Guild said it has information "which convinces us that the sale of the building and equipment had been a subject of negotiations far in advance of our strike."

The union's strike did not precipitate the sale, the Guild stated.

"Rather, the company imposed conditions on us in negotiations, forcing us to strike, fully intending to announce the sale after we were on the picket line," it said.

Amberg described this charge as "utter nonsense."

He said: "I can understand their embarrassment. It is typical Guild tactics to blame their own errors on other people.

"It was their unreasonable demands that brought about the strike, and it was the strike that brought about the events announced yesterday."

WOMAN BILKED OF $2800 IN PIGEON DROP FRAUD

Miss Martha Williams, 2616 Slattery street, was bilked of $2800 in a pigeon drop confidence game, she reported to police yesterday. The 53-year-old woman said she met two men at Seventh and Olive streets, one of whom said he had found a wallet containing $2100.

The man proposed giving Miss Williams $700 of the money if she could show she knew "how to handle money." The man identified himself as an employe of a bank and said he had sought advice from his employer on what to do with the "money" he found.

Miss Williams drew $2800 out of the Jefferson Bank in a cashier's check but when she presented it to the man, he demanded she cash it. She and the second man then went to a bank and cashed the check. On returning with the cash, Miss Williams was asked to wait at Seventh street and Washington avenue. The men took her money and never returned.

DRIVER OF CAR THAT KILLED YOUTH GETS YEAR IN JAIL

A circuit court jury yesterday fixed punishment of one year in County Jail for Edward F. Donton, 5100 block of Delmar boulevard, after finding him guilty of feloniously leaving the scene of an accident. Trial was held in the court of Judge Franklin Ferriss at Clayton.

Donton was the driver of an automobile which struck 14-year-old Thomas W. Grissom Aug. 31, 1957 on Natural Bridge road, east of Fee Fee road. The youth was knocked 45 feet and died later at St. Louis County Hospital.

Donton was arrested the day after the acident when police observed his automobile weaving. Testifying in his own behalf, Donton said he became convinced after talking with police that it was his car that struck the youth. He said he had not realized what had happened. His attorney said a motion for a new trial would be filed.

SUSPECT TRIPS 2 ALARMS, CAUGHT AFTER SECOND

Hides Successfully During First Police Search at Auto Parts Plant.

Sounding of a burglar alarm at the Modern Auto Parts Co., 1712 Lafayette avenue, early today failed to result in capture of the intruder until he tripped a second alarm three hours later.

Officers reported the man was able to hide from them at 2:15 a.m. in part because dogs of the canine corps and their handlers were unavailable. The intruder, who said he was James Garrett told police he hid on some boxes on the second floor during the early search.

Later Garrett, who assembled automobile accessories near a rear door after police locked the building and departed, set off a second alarm. The subsequent search, at 5:15 a.m., disclosed him hiding under a pile of tires on the first floor.

Garrett, living in the 1600 block of Mississippi avenue, was booked suspected of burglary. Entrance to the building was gained by forcing a window opening on an outside staircase, police said.

A burglar alarm attracted police to the tavern of James Gosreau, at 1329 Lucas avenue, early today. In the basement officers found a man hiding in a washroom and another under a staircase, they reported. The men, booked as Fred McCoy, living in the 3900 block of St. Louis avenue, and Leon Berry, 2700 block of Stoddard street, said they entered the basement through a coal chute, setting off the alarm. They were booked suspected of burglary.

Patrolman Ora Jennings of the Deer street district off duty and in civilian clothes, stopped his automobile for a traffic signal in front of a grocery store at 3901 Page boulevard early today and noticed a man moving about in the store.

When Jennings got out to investigate, he was seen by the man, who ran out the rear door. The officer fired a shot but the man got away. Entrance had been gained by knocking a hole in the rear wall. Cases of whisky and cigarettes were piled near the rear door, but apparently nothing was missing, police said.

Peter Giorgi, who had been left on guard in his father's market, 2353 Clark avenue, after police discovered that burglars had knocked a hole in the brick wall early today, saw a man crawl through the hole at 6 a.m.

Giorgi held the man, who appeared to be drunk, until police arrived. The prisoner, booked as Corinza Clayborn, living in the 2600 block of Spruce street, was quoted as saying he had returned for more merchandise, after carrying away meat and whisky on his original visit.

Two men loitering near the store in an automobile were arrested for questioning. The market is operated by Nick Giorgi.

were Charles B. "Bud" Elliott, 5331 Donovan avenue, owner of the night club and his bartenders, Charles Wise, 110 Ruth drive, Florissant, and Lawrence Thomas, 4203 Jefferson drive, Vinita Park. They were booked suspected of violation of liquor laws.

Fred Amad Jr., operator of Little Las Vegas, 317 DeBaliviere, was arrested and booked for investigation of possible liquor violations. The raiders found no entertainers at Little Las Vegas.

At the Contessa Cocktail Lounge, 5241 Delmar boulevard, police said they found two customers having drinks after the 1:30 a.m. closing hour. Joseph T. LaBarbera, the owner, and candidate for the Republican nomination for Alderman in the Twenty-sixth Ward, was booked suspected of violating city and state liquor.

Fred M. Robinson, operator of a tavern at 515 North Taylor avenue, and Miss Mary Boyher, the barmaid, were arrested after a detective reported he was served a drink after 1:30 a.m.

All those arrested were taken to police headquarters and spent several hours in custody until released on bail. They were directed to appear in police court March 17. Warrants will be sought on the state liquor charges.

BANKER HINTZ OF HODGE CASE LEAVES PRISON

Served 2½ Years of 3-Year Sentence — Still Faces Legal Difficulties.

JOLIET, Ill., Feb. 28 (AP)—Former Bank President Edward A. Hintz walked out of Stateville Penitentiary today after serving two and one-half years—the first major figure in the Hodge scandal to regain his freedom.

Hintz wore a new prison-made suit of clothes and was given $25 on his release.

He was sentenced to three years but was given time off for good behavior. His lawyer and a crowd of reporters greeted him at the prison gate.

Hintz is not yet out of the legal woods, however. He has a date to appear in United States District Court in Chicago Monday on a contempt of Congress charge.

Hintz, 70 years old, was in a good mood as he chatted with newsmen.

"I have a lot of friends in Stateville, but I certainly won't miss it," he said. "I crave privacy now. I've been in the limelight long enough."

He said he lost 20 pounds in his prison term, which he said gave him "30 months of well-needed rest."

Hintz was sent to prison for misapplying bank funds and conspiracy. He was president of the Southmoor State Bank & Trust Co. of Chicago, where investigators said most of the phony state warrants totaling $1,500,000 were cashed and the money placed in the account of then State Auditor Orville Hodge.

Hintz reportedly has several job offers, but he told reporters he has no immediate plans for the future.

The contempt of Congress charge is based on Hintz's refusal to testify at a Chicago hearing by the Senate Banking and Currency Committee in October 1956. The committee was digging into Hodge's embezzlement of state funds while he was state auditor.

Hintz declined to answer questions because of the presence of television, movie and still cameras and recording machines in the hearing room.

Hodge is serving a 12-to-15-year sentence in Menard Penitentiary for embezzlement. A Hodge aid, Edward A. Epping, is serving concurrent terms of one to 10 years for forgery, confidence game and embezzlement and four to five years for conspiracy.

'No' to a Tax

It is no surprise to read that 75 per cent of the personal property tax returns in St. Louis county were returned because they "failed to comply with regulations."

If the truth were known, probably closer to 90 per cent failed to comply with the Missouri law which provides for assessment of all property at true value in money.

It is my opinion that fewer than 1 per cent of all persons subject to the tax have ever complied with the law since its inception.

As a St. Louisan, all I would ask is that the city be honest by:

1. Not employing deceptive propaganda (with reference to bridge tolls and other extraneous matters) to show a need for increased taxes when that need can be clearly shown without using such tactics.

2. Encouraging respect for laws by wiping the books clean of any law which is not equitably enforcable. A law that cannot be enforced is by its very nature discriminatory, and therefore, unjust.

3. Obtaining repeal of the personal property tax on household goods and personal effects with the provision made that it cannot ever be reinstituted.

Voters' Verdict

If that Dixon-Yates deal was so notorious as your newspaper and Kefauver have tried to make people believe, then why did Eisenhower carry that Democrat state of Tennessee by 90,000 votes and Kefauver's county by 8000? Some of the leading papers in Tennessee refused to support Kefauver. S. W. Peel

Glories of the County

I used to live in St. Louis, and I love it yet, and Mr. Tucker is a good man, and I'm sure that he is doing a fine job.

He would do a lot better if every St. Louisan lived in the county as a taxpayer for a while, and then came back to the advantages offered to the residences of the city. I pay taxes to the county government, and for my $150 or so (each year increasing) I get:

1. No street lights.
2. No police protection (state highway, occasionally).
3. No water. I must pay for every bucketful.
4. No sewer; septic tank and vile Cold Water creek.
5. No public parks.
6. No zoo, and if there were one it would be in Clayton.
7. No streets; they aren't kept up well enough to be dignified as streets.
8. No fire protection; each community must buy its own fire engine.
9. No adult education for high school credits.
10. No adequate hospital facilities. Guess where the charity hospital is? Right! In Clayton, 45 minutes from my home.

Do you begin to get the message, St. Louis? Holler your heads off, but pay your taxes, and keep your city, it's just wonderful. G.D.

'Peace In Our Time'

As I read about the treatment Prime Minister Macmillan has received in Moscow, I am reminded of the tired, saddened Neville Chamberlain who also tried to reason with a dictator. History seems to be repeating itself. Mr. Macmillan even looks somewhat like Chamberlain; all he needs is an umbrella. God help us if Khrushchev and his gang draws us into a shooting war over Berlin. What Price Insurance

I realize that your comparison of spending $700,000,000 for a more complete missile program to buying an insurance policy was not intended to be taken literally.

I wonder, however, whether the genuine help which such expenditure will give us is not about equal to the help that a life insurance policy gives a person in his struggle against a critical illness. If a person is sick, his loved ones do not pin their hopes for his recovery on insurance policies.

The real tragedy is not that we are being "held back" in the development of destructive "insurance-policy" weapons but rather that we don't seem to know as a nation what we are insuring and seeking to preserve.

Who would be the beneficiary in an atomic-hydrogen war?

Troy, Mo. Alice Massay

A Case of Nepotism

I've looked in this column in vain so far for bleats or howls concerning the Congressman from Iowa who has hired his son.

Civil service career government employes can clearly see that they didn't have the proper Congressman, boss or dad. They must show good and validated evidence of strenuous preparation, years of experience and pass stiff requirements to start at half this young man's salary. M.P.

African Awakening

The demonstrations and wholesale arrests in Nyasaland and Southern Rhodesia are especially disturbing. Those two territories together with Northern Rhodesia were combined in the Central African Federation of the British Commonwealth as an antidote to the racism of the Union of South Africa.

The federation was to be a barrier to the territorial ambitions of South Africa's Boer politicians and to the extension of their policy of apartheid. Thus it was meant to reassure both the Europeans and the natives of central Africa. There is not much reassurance, however, in herding leaders of the African National Congress into concentration camps.

Some doubts about the hasty combination arose from the beginning. There are 250,000 white settlers in the two Rhodesias and 4,500,000 Africans. In Nyasaland there are only 7000 whites and 3,500,000 Africans. But the whites have been running the show, partly because of their competence and partly because of their determination. The federal parliament has 29 white members and only six Africans.

In many ways, it has been "a good show." Salisbury, the capital, is a thriving, modern city. It could have been built only with European know-how. The natives unquestionably have benefited from its development. That goes, too, for the hydro-electric dams, transport and communications, scientific farming and, in general, the advanced technology introduced by the Europeans.

Yet the natives are pressing for independence. This newspaper's correspondent, Donald Grant, reports that the feeling is discernible in some degree all over Africa. For every moderate leader, there is a man like Dr. Hastings Banda of Nyasaland who calls himself "the extremist of extremists." Since he returned to Africa only last year, he must know how relatively primitive it still is. But natives who never have been "beyond the mountains" are ignorant of what is necessary to maintain independence in the middle of the twentieth century. This may be excusable, but it also is frightening. It led to the Mau Mau terror.

Civilization by coercion, however, is no longer possible. Kitchener and Tommy Atkins cannot be sent to teach the "fuzziewuzzies" a lesson. The logic of numbers is against the efforts of the settlers in Africa to impose their will indefinitely. White and black must work together, and the rights and the contributions of each must be respected. If moderate leaders cannot bring about such harmony, the African awakening will be indeed turbulent.

Protecting the Small Dairy

The killing-off of smaller dairies and dairy farms in price wars waged by large dairy companies, under consideration by the Missouri House Dairy Committee, is a matter of deep general concern. Once again, as two years ago, the victims of these unfair practices are seeking legislation which would outlaw sales of milk at prices below cost. Sympathetic as we are to the objective sought, we continue to believe that this is not the proper remedy, and could create more ills than it would end. It is not pricing itself that is the villain of the piece, but the use of pricing as an instrument of monopoly. Cannot the provisions and enforcement of Missouri anti-monopoly law be sufficiently strengthened to protect the independent dairyman and milk processor without recourse to so cumbersome and questionable a measure?

For Peace, Not for Red China

Red China ought to be included in any sound, workable plan for controlling nuclear weapons and other arms, according to Walter S. Robertson, Assistant Secretary of State for Far Eastern Affairs. But he said Yes with so many qualifications that it sounded more like No. In view of his record as a bitter-end Chiang Kai-shek supporter, one suspects that Mr. Robertson is not so much interested in getting Red China into a disarmament pact as in throwing cold water on the chances of a workable pact.

Yet the closer any disarmament agreement comes to being universal, the better its chances of being effective. And if a nation as big and as strong as Red China is excluded from such an agreement, the pact has a built-in weakness.

Charles Burton Marshall, who was a member of the State Department policy planning staff under both President Truman and President Eisenhower, took a different line before the Senate Disarmament subcommittee. He suggested "taking note of the easing of the threat of force in the Formosa Strait and making clear our willingness accordingly to enter into diplomatic relations with the Peiping regime." He was immediately in trouble with Senator Hickenlooper, not to mention Senator Wiley and Senator Lausche. Mr. Robertson was not having any of that booby-trap; hence his qualifications.

Senator Hickenlooper has very positive views about Red China. They have been the same since the establishment of the regime and they are virtually guaranteed not to change. Yet the world does change.

Case History in Automation

A foretaste of what is ahead for many employers and their employes may be derived from the preliminaries to the negotiation of a new contract between Milwaukee's five breweries and the United Brewery Workers. Fear of unemployment is making wage increases of secondary importance to the men.

Precedence is being given, instead, to a number of "share the work" proposals. For example, the union wants to shorten the work-week to 32½ hours. It is asking longer annual vacations, running up to five weeks after 10 years' employment. It also is asking for two more holidays with pay, Good Friday and Veterans' Day. An unemployment benefits program to supplement state unemployment benefits, and a plan under which one week of severance pay would be given for each year of service are also being discussed.

Most clearly indicative of the employes' apprehension, however, is a suggested provision that no new machinery shall be placed into operation until an agreement has been reached by the company and the union as to the number of men to be employed in operating the new equipment. Even if this proposal is accepted, it can only be a stop-gap, a device for postponing the inevitable. It is sure to degenerate into "feather-bedding," and that is no answer to technological improvements.

There still will be work to do in the so-called automatic age, especially since the American working population is expected to decline in relation to total population. But many of the jobs will be different from those which now exist. The real hope lies in spotting the jobs which are doomed and training workers for the new jobs which will open up. Most other proposals only have the value of easing this transition from old to new.

Curtis on Insurance Taxes

Representative Curtis of Webster Groves took a conspicuous but not very persuasive position last week when he was one of the few members of the House to oppose passage of the Administration bill to tax the income of life insurance companies.

The Treasury was for the bill; the Democratic majority was for it; Chairman Mills and the majority of the House Ways and Means Committee were for it; such conservative Republicans as Simpson of Pennsylvania and the late Daniel Reed of New York were for it. But Representative Curtis, who has often taken a keen interest in legislation pertaining to life insurance, argued against it, and moved unsuccessfully to recommit the measure.

For years Congress has been trying to agree on a sound permanent formula for taxing insurance companies. Results of the existing formula, Representative Mills told the House, are in some cases "outrageous." Some companies pay taxes that are "ridiculously small" in relation to profits, he charged.

After off-and-on study over the past eight years, the Ways and Means Committee and the Treasury last fall finally agreed on a new formula by which, Mr. Mills argued, "We are getting at the true income of life insurance companies for the first time since 1921." Income on investments is to be taxed after making due allowance for the building up of proper reserves, and other income is to be taxed in stages, half at the time it is earned and the rest when and if distributed to stockholders.

Sponsors believe the new formula is fair and will encourage the growth of new and small companies. It is expected to yield $545,000,000 in revenue as compared with $319,000,000 under the present formula.

Representative Curtis argued for a lesser tax — not more than $365,000,000 — on the ground that the life insurance business is already taxed at the state level, and that no adequate study had been made of the economic impact of such a heavy federal increase. He feared that if the life insurance industry were crippled, demands would arise for expanded social security legislation.

Yet he acknowledged that "there are and have been some real loopholes in the taxing of life insurance companies," and he had no alternative to offer except another extension of the discredited stopgap formula. On the whole, Representatives Mills and Simpson made a convincing case for the House bill. We shall hope that the collection of more taxes from the life insurance companies does not turn out to be the crushing blow which Mr. Curtis fears.

The Oily Voice of Texas

The voluntary limitations on oil imports ended at midnight Friday, and the White House is expected soon to put a mandatory quota system into force. The reason for this, according to the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, is that the importation of foreign oil undermines this country's ability to meet its needs in time of war.

That sounds as illogical as ever—especially since the figures for January show that imports were well below the quotas. It would seem that the more foreign oil we burn in peacetime, the more of our own will be available in case of war.

One cannot help hearing demands from Texas for more of the domestic business, just as in the East one hears protests against import limitations. There, imported oil is cheaper than Texas oil. Just when we are having so much trouble winning friends and influencing people in the Middle East, it does not seem a good idea to stop buying Middle Eastern oil. After all, everybody loves a customer.

But the voice of Texas is a loud voice in Washington.

The Lawyers' Responsibility

The Aschemeyer and Ewald bills providing machinery for extending the Nonpartisan Court Plan to additional judicial districts by vote of the people concerned are pending in the Missouri House's judiciary committee. How long they will stay there depends on the consciences of the 23 committee members. All of them are lawyers. In this instance they carry a great professional responsibility to the remainder of their colleagues in the Legislature, as well as to the people of the state.

This is because of a 1950 opinion of the Missouri Supreme Court holding that the constitutional provision on extending the court plan was not self-enforcing. In other words, although the Missouri Constitution grants the people the right to vote on extending the plan, they cannot exercise this right until the Legislature writes rules under which the election will be conducted within the judicial districts concerned. As the court said, the language of the Constitution > is more than a mere permissive authorization to the Legislature to provide the manner in which the election shall be held. It is a mandate to it to implement the Section if it is found necessary to make it effective, as we have found the case to be. . . .

The Legislature has a duty to meet this constitutional command. Committee Chairman Thomas D. Graham, Jefferson City Democrat, and his fellow lawyers have a responsibility not only to recommend legislation but to take the lead in explaining the Legislature's duty to pass it.

The question is not one of extending the court plan. It is whether the Legislature will make it possible for the people to exercise their right to vote on extending the plan if they desire to. The law is on the side of the people, as the lawyers of the judiciary committee surely should know.

We hope the Legislature will forget its impulse to add a state advertising slogan to Missouri license plates. Not having one of those trite, cheap, pretentious legends on the plate is a distinction Missouri should cherish.

"BOY, WE'VE GOT 'EM WORRIED THIS TIME"

Need Work, Will Travel

One Farm Worker in 10 Is a Migrant Who Follows Harvests North

From State Government

For many years agricultural producers in the United States have relied upon migratory farm workers for seasonal labor, especially at harvest time. Migrants now represent almost half of the total of all farm workers, about one-tenth of the labor force in agriculture, and nearly 2 per cent of the total labor force.

Farmers in all except three of our states require their services in significant numbers. Yet, despite the importance of the migrant worker to agriculture and to the general economy, his working and living conditions have been, and for the most part continue to be, deplorable. He remains a member of a disadvantaged group. There are current indications, nevertheless, that the lot of the migrants is being improved.

The Mirror of Public Opinion

Farmers, aware of the importance of migrant labor to them, are beginning to appreciate the necessity of doing their part to improve conditions on the farm. Private groups, often under church leadership, are sponsoring programs at the community level.

State laws and local ordinances have been enacted to provide better health and welfare services.

There have been other developments which may prove to be of major significance. The Joint Federal-State Action Committee has identified migratory farm labor as an emerging problem toward the solution of which it will direct its attention. Governors of the Eastern Seaboard States have appointed representatives to examine the situation and determine what the states can and should do about it. Also, a sufficient number of pilot or experimental projects have been tried and evaluated to suggest that certain problems associated with migrancy can be corrected.

The definition which seems to be in most common use identifies the migrant as one whose principal income is earned from temporary farm employment and who in the course of his year's work moves one or more times.

Not included in this definition are workers who commute to temporary jobs nor those who move to a new location and thereafter remain more or less permanently.

Basically we have migrants for two reasons. As the President's Commission on Migratory Labor reported in 1951:

"Among the reasons for migrancy, the foremost is that many people find it impossible to make a living in a single location and hence have to become migratory. Technological displacement, business recession and consequent unemployment in industry, drouth and crop failure, radical changes in the sharecropper system, lack of education and vocational training—these are among the basic factors responsible for migrancy."

The other major reason lies in the character of American agriculture. Increasingly, farms are becoming industrial. Acreage per farm is increased, crop specialization is practiced and production is mechanized. Together, these factors produce a situation in which a comparatively small labor force is needed most of the time, but in which a large labor force is required when crops must be harvested—an operation difficult to mechanize.

For the most part, migrants from Mexico work in Texas and California, but in recent years they have taken jobs in more than half the states. Japanese and Filipinos work in the Pacific Coast States, primarily California. Puerto Ricans find jobs in the eastern states; of late increasing numbers have joined the migrant stream in Florida and worked north.

Mexican nationals, the largest group of foreign migrants, are protected by a treaty, salient sections of which are written into the contract signed by the employer and the migrant. These include guarantees of employment, workmen's compensation, medical care, standards of sanitation and payment of the cost of transportation.

The President's Commission on Migratory Labor in 1951 found housing at the home bases of migrants to be among the worst in the nation. The migrant is absent from his home for much of the year; and his lack of integration in the community lessens his ability to persuade his local government to initiate housing developments beneficial to him.

Housing on the job varies greatly —from very good, in a small number of places, to incredibly bad in a far larger number. The average fails to meet decent standards.

Provision of health services for migrants is made difficult by their mobility, their low incomes, the location of the typical farm camp beyond the reach of medical and health facilities, and often by state or local laws.

Retardation at school is characteristic of migratory children. The causes are not hard to find. Frequent moves interrupt their schooling. In many states little or no effort is made to enroll them. Language difficulties impede some.

Child labor is an important element in migratory farm labor. It is not confined to periods when schools are not in session nor to children who should be in school. Even preschool children are known to work at "stoop" labor.

There are three principal reasons for child labor. The migrant family needs the income; the family, without access to child care facilities, must take the children into the fields; and third, some employers prefer children as workers.

Obviously the problems of migrant laborers are many and severe. The remedies they require are neither simple nor few. The groups that have been examining the facts about migrants, and the needs, agree that broad solutions are called for, involving study and action by all levels of government, and numerous special adaptations to fit particular regional, state and local needs.

Taking the High Road From The Washington Post

The billboard regulation amendment adopted by Congress last year was an artful attempt to use a carrot instead of a stick to safeguard new highways, and it looks as if the formula is working. A survey made by the American Automobile Association shows that at least 25 out of 44 state legislatures meeting this year are already considering some form of billboard controls. No doubt a commendable desire to protect the new federal interstate highway system from encroachment has prompted this trend, but budget-minded legislators can hardly be indifferent to the federal "bonus" which rewards this virtue. The bonus, amounting to ½ of 1 per cent in addition to the 90 per cent federal share, is accorded to states that adopt signboard regulations that meet national standards.

Such regulations were adopted by Virginia last year, and Maryland is taking action to make its recently enacted controls conform to federal standards. The officials of A.A.A. have good reason to call this development "the greatest forward advance in the history of roadside protection." In addition to Maryland, the states which have begun consideration of roadside controls include: Arizona, Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Florida, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, Montana, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

Between Book Ends Today's Judaism

POINT OF VIEW, by Israel H. Levinthal. (Abelard-Schuman, 112 pgs., $2.75.)

"Point of View" is an interesting dissertation on the differences between the four main streams of American Jewish religious ideologies today.

Dr. Levinthal, Rabbi of the Brooklyn Jewish Center, makes two excellent points, first, that Orthodoxy was the counter-reformation to Reformed Judaism, and secondly, that all Jewish religious viewpoints agree on fundamental theosophical concepts.

Before the emancipation of the Jews from the ghetto (circa 1800) there was only one way of life based on the restrictions of a "Talmudic" code which had stopped growing in the 16th century when it had been given its final codification. This way of life proved too onerous for the emancipated Jew, who, since there was no other Jewish road for him, chose conversion, "the admission ticket to European civilization" as Heinrich Heine termed it.

To stop this alarming trend to baptism, Jewish leaders founded Reform Judaism which streamlined Jewish religious precepts to conform to the demands of the 19th century. But like all reform movements, the Jewish reformers in their zeal also threw out the baby with the bath, leaving them with a Judaism "hardly distinguishable" from Christianity. Orthodox Judaism grew out of a protest to this "Christianization" of Judaism, but it in turn went too far to the right, imposing ever more stringent restrictions. The compromise between these two extremes was the Conservative reform in Judaism, which took what it considered the best aspects of the other two.

The fourth religious concept in American life came into being in 1934 with the publication of Mordecai M. Kaplan's book, "Judaism as a Civilization." This is a rational, ethical religion, based upon the "peoplehood" of the Jews, a religious idea so abstract that there is hardly room for God, according to Rabbi Levinthal. Thus far it has made little headway and has found most of its converts among the intellectuals.

But, as Dr. Levinthal points out, none of these religious viewpoints disagrees on any theosophical ground. The big argument centers itself around the role of the "Talmud," the body of religious-legal interpretations which grew out of the Mosaic code. The Reformed congregations tend to throw most of it out, the Orthodox keep most of it in, the Conservatives pick what is practical, and the Reconstructionists say "each man to his own choice." Not the Talmud, they say, but the Jewish ethos evolved through 40 centuries, creates its own Jewishness.

RESTORATION OF OLD BARRACKS BUILDINGS

Plans for restoration of four historic buildings and grounds at the Jefferson Barracks Historical Park were outlined last night by Robert G. Stewart, planning consultant for the St. Louis County Historic Buildings Commission.

In a talk before the Missouri Historical Society at the Jefferson Memorial building, Stewart said restoration of the laborers' house at the old military headquarters has been completed.

It is one of four buildings that are more than 100 years old. The commission, Stewart continued, now is collecting furnishings of the period and will open the house as a museum "probably late this spring."

Extensive Research.

Efforts to gather pertinent and accurate information on the military post have included securing original drawings from the National Archives, studying old photographs and drawings, archeological excavations which have produced valuable artifacts, and extensive study of the buildings themselves, he said.

Stewart showed pictures and slides of outstanding historic buildings in St. Louis county, all listed, described and pictured in a survey he is making for the commission.

He described efforts to interest the town of Northwoods in acquiring Minoma, a mansion built in 1856 by Jefferson K. Clark, son of William Clark of the Lewis and Clark expedition.

The commission has recommended the mansion be developed as a community center, Stewart said.

Value to Community.

"An important factor in preserving the individuality and significance of a community," he declared, "is the retention of its most important buildings as landmarks.

"As they grow older and become more important, such buildings often become the very physical backbone of a community."

St. Louis county is making a "concerted" effort to retain its existing historic sites and buildings through the commission, Stewart said, expressing the belief that Washington without its capitol building, Paris without Notre Dame, and New York without the Statue of Liberty "would not be the same places."

BUSINESSMEN URGED TO STRESS VIEWS

Business men should make their feelings known to legislators on every important current issue, United States Chamber of Commerce officials said here yesterday.

That was the principal point stressed at a six-hour meeting at the Sheraton-Jefferson Hotel attended by about 700 business men from eight states. The audience was recently urged to "write your Senator or Congressman."

The meeting was the last of a series conducted in February in 12 American cities. The idea was to mobilize business men to make their influence more effective with legislators.

Panel discussions developed the Chamber's views and recommendations on the issues. Speakers urged a strong stand against increased federal controls in all fields.

On labor corruption, the Chamber called for a strong bill outlawing secondary boycotts, organizational picketing and featherbedding. Officials also would outlaw "compulsory unionism" and make anti-trust laws applicable to unions.

The Chamber opposes broadening the base for the minimum wage law or raising minimum wages. In fact, the spokesman said, they saw no reason for minimum wage laws at all because "you can't legislate against property."

In the public housing field, the Chamber opposed congressional plans for a substantially increased program. Spokesmen contended that this is an effort by the Federal Government to take over a function that rightfully belongs to local government.

The Chamber also assailed federal aid to education, asserting that local school districts have a higher degree of solvency than the Federal Government. Panelists said local school authorities are willing and able to handle their own affairs.

The group urged programs at the local level to meet school needs and offered the facilities of the Chamber to help in any way possible.

FRANCIS TEMPLEMAN DIES; WAS WITH ANHEUSER-BUSCH

Francis W. Templeman, who retired last October as export sales manager for Anheuser-Busch Inc., died of cancer early today at St. Mary's Hospital. He was 65 years old.

Mr. Templeman, who lives at 16 Daniel road, Ladue, had been with Anheuser-Busch for more than 30 years. Born in St. Louis, he was graduated from St. Louis University and served overseas in the Army in World War I.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Lucy Greene Templeman; two daughters, Mrs. Paul R. Tobin and Mrs. Joseph Wimsatt, of Northbrook, Ill.; two brothers, Louis and John Templeman, and three sisters, the Misses May and Rose Templeman, and Mrs. E. R. Christman. The funeral will be Tuesday at 9:15 a.m. at St. Mary Magdalen Church, 8759 Manchester road, Brentwood. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery.

Toledo Times Editor Dies.

TOLEDO, O., Feb. 28 (AP)—George A. Benson Sr., 69 years old, editor of the Toledo Times, died last night following a stroke. He had written editorials for the Times since 1948, when he became associate editor. He had been editor the last five years.

FRED E. BRINER FUNERAL TO BE MONDAY AFTERNOON

Funeral services for Fred E. Briner, a founder and director of the Briner Electric Co. for more than 60 years, will be at 2:30 p.m. Monday at the Alexander and Son's undertaking establishment, 6175 Delmar boulevard. Burial will be in Valhalla Cemetery.

Mr. Briner, who was 85 years old, died today at his home, 21 Aberdeen place, of infirmities of age. A native of Highland, Ill., he founded the Briner Electric Co. with his brother Charles in 1897. He has been a director of the Tower Grove Bank and Trust Co. since 1918 and was past president of the Algonquin Golf Club and the Downtown Lions Club.

There were no immediate survivors.

FUNERAL FOR MRS. HANLON

Funeral services for Mrs. Thomas Hanlon, former head nurse at Bethesda General Hospital, will be at 2 p.m. Monday at Math Hermann & Son's undertaking establishment, 2161 East Fair avenue. Burial will be in Bellefontaine Cemetery.

Mrs. Hanlon, 89 years old, died of complications Thursday at St. Mary's Hospital. She had been a nurse for about 40 years before retiring 18 years ago. She lived with a niece, Mrs. Alfred DeLany, 642 Selma avenue, Webster Groves. Surviving are two other nieces and a nephew.

THE LAW PROHIBITS THEFT!

The necessity of teaching the 'application' of this universal law to the complexities in our present day economy—is found in the prophetic words of CHIEF JUSTICE HUGHES that "dominance of a sense of justice is essential to survival of a democracy."

This law, defined in its broadest sense, must guide our legislators not to be subservient to "special privilege"—the Press not to be subservient to its advertisers,—our educational and religious institutions not to be subservient to countless excesses of business, however veiled.

"What racket are you in?" is a jocular greeting, but nevertheless, it is indicative of an atrophied or undeveloped sense of justice that contributes to the delinquency of employers as well as employees, one to the other. This creates an atmosphere, in our nation, in which the soul of democracy is stifled and wherein a government of, by, and for the people can not function.

As long as we have our freedoms, we can continue to work for the survival of democracy. Here, however, is an instance where a newspaper, subsidized as an educational medium, denies the freedom of the press. It refused to run this ad:

"I am asking the smaller outlying Press as to their circulation LOSS due to the 4 prize contests of the two large St. Louis papers? Are you not being squeezed similarly to the minor league ball teams? Since all commercial prize contests have a 'profit-motive,' should they not be barred as lotteries, either constitutionally or legislatively?"

To help the American people grasp the momentous significance of the words of  Chief Justice Hughes, they should read the profound and illuminating P.D. editorial, "A Sense of Justice." It closes with the admonition that lacking this "sense," the soul of democracy will flee the body politic and leave behind an empty shell.

For a copy, send a stamped self-addressed return envelope to P. Keller, 48 Grantwood Lane, St. Louis 23, Mo.

News of the Churches in the St. Louis Area

DOWNTOWN LENTEN SERVICES CONTINUE

By JOHN T. STEWART
Church Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Two new St. Louis pastors and a professor at Eden Theological Seminary will be the preachers at downtown noonday Lenten services next week. The services are held Monday through Friday, 12:10 to 12:40 p.m., at Christ Church Cathedral, Thirteenth and Locust streets. They are sponsored by the Metropolitan Church Federation.

The preacher Monday and Tuesday will be the Rev. Dr. Sterling L. Price, who came recently to Third Baptist Church from a Baptist pastorate at Abilene, Tex. He is a graduate of Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee, and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Tex., and also holds master's degrees in religious education and music.

Wednesday, the preacher will be the Rev. Dr. Lionel A. Whiston Jr., professor of Old Testament at Eden Seminary. He is a graduate of Bates College, Lewiston, Me., and Andover Newton Theological School, Newton Center, Mass., and holds a doctorate degree from Harvard Divinity School. Prof. Whiston holds ministerial standing in both the Congregational and the Evangelical and Reformed Church, which were merged to form the new United Church of Christ. His father is a Congregational pastor in Massachusetts.

The Lenten preacher Thursday and Friday will be the Rev. Dr. George E. Sweazey, who became pastor of Webster Groves Presbyterian Church Jan. 1. He was pastor of Tyler Place Presbyterian Church, St. Louis, from 1939 to 1945. The Rev. Dr. Sweazey is a graduate of Westminster College, Fulton, Mo., and Princeton Theological Seminary. He holds the M.A. degree from Princeton University, and the Ph. D. degree from the University of Berlin, Germany. From 1945 to 1953 the Rev. Dr. Sweazey was secretary of evangelism for the Presbyterian Church. He came to the Webster Groves church from a pastorate at Pelham, N.Y.

BAPTISTS PLAN RELIGIOUS WEEK FOR STUDENTS

The St. Louis Baptist Mission will sponsor Religious Focus Week, Monday through Friday, for college and university students in St. Louis. Co-chairmen for the week are Miss Martha Tarrant, senior at Missouri Baptist Hospital School of Nursing, and Miss Becky Cross of Belleville.

Sessions of the week's program will be conducted Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings in the chapel of Missouri Baptist Hospital, 919 North Taylor avenue. Other programs will be held throughout the week at universities, colleges and various hospitals.

Dr. Carl Tabb Bahner, professor of chemistry at Carson-Newman College, Jefferson City, Tenn., will be a member of a team that will take part in Religious Focus Week. He will discuss the relation of science and religion.

Other members of the team include the Rev. Dr. Andrew M. Hall, pastor of First Baptist Church, Fayetteville, Ark.; S. E. Grinstead of Nashville, Tenn., national director of Baptist student work; Bill Cody, assistant personnel secretary of the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board, Richmond, Va.; Miss LaVeta Ligon, director of student activities at Hannibal-LaGrange College, Hannibal, Mo., and Mrs. Earl A. Forderhase, wife of the pastor of Euclid Baptist Church, St. Louis.

Girl Scout Sunday Set.

Girl Scout Sunday will be observed March 8. The organization includes 39,027 girls and adults in St. Louis.

To Be Honored

THE REV. DR. J. LAYTON MAUZE JR.

CENTRAL CHURCH PASTOR MARKS ANNIVERSARY

The Rev. Dr. J. Layton Mauze Jr., minister of Central Presbyterian Church, will be honored Monday at a dinner commemorating his 10 years' pastorate. Elders, trustees and deacons of the church will attend the dinner at the church, Hanley road and Davis drive, Clayton.

The Rev. Dr. Mauze preached his first sermon at Central Church March 6, 1949. He came to St. Louis after serving 12 years as minister of Central Presbyterian Church, Kansas City.

His father also was pastor of Central Church, St. Louis, from 1902 to 1917, and the son was born in the minister's manse in the 5600 block of Cates avenue.

The Rev. Dr. Mauze Jr., followed his father in three churches. His first church post was as assistant pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Huntington, W. Va., where his father had been minister. The father was pastor of the Kansas City church when he died in 1937, and his son was called to succeed him.

UNITED CHURCH MEN PLAN COMMUNION BREAKFAST

United Church Men of St. Louis will attend their first communion breakfast on Pentecost Sunday, May 17. A goal of 1000 men, clergy and lay, has been set for the event, according to J. Clinton Hawkins, president of the organization. It is affiliated with the Metropolitan Church Federation.

The communion service will be held at Centenary Methodist Church at 7 a.m. The breakfast meeting will be at 8 a.m. at Hotel Sheraton-Jefferson. The speaker will be Charles C. Parlin, Methodist layman of New York City, and vice president of the National Council of Churches.

CHURCHES SUPPORT WORLD RELIEF WORK

Church members should step up their response to the urgent relief needs of the world, and should give their help through denominational agencies, rather than through secular organizations.

This was the advice given here this week by one of the country's outstanding relief administrators, the Rev. Dr. Gaither P. Warfield of New York. He was in St. Louis for the annual meeting of the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief, which he serves as general secretary.

(Many Protestant churches in St. Louis will begin a week of special emphasis on overseas relief tomorrow. Sunday, March 8, special offerings will be taken in response to "One Great Hour of Sharing" appeal. Catholic churches will observe a similar week in response to the "Bishops' Relief Fund" appeal. Likewise, most Jewish communities are engaged in raising funds for the United Jewish Appeal).

"Secular agencies also are performing a useful relief job in many parts of the world," the Rev. Dr. Warfield said. "But the dedicated services, economic efficiencies, and voluntary co-operative approach of the church agencies make it possible to keep overhead to a phenomenal minimum and stretch the church relief dollar to an amazing extent."

Every dollar given through the denominations in Church World Service last year provided more than 400 pounds of surplus government food to the hungry overseas, he pointed out.

"Last Supper" to be Shown.

Bellefontaine Methodist Church, 10516 Bellefontaine road, will present a dramatization of the "Last Supper," the painting by Da Vinci, tomorrow at 7 p.m.

University Methodist Church Completes Improvement Work

University Methodist Church, Washington and Trinity avenues, University City, will consecrate a new chancel, altar and pipe organ at 11 a.m. tomorrow. Bishop Eugene M. Frank will preach the sermon. The service will be conducted by the minister, the Rev. Dr. Jesse E. Thomas.

Many other new gifts have been made to the church by its members and friends, and these special gifts will be consecrated tomorrow. They include clergy chairs, pulpit and lectern, new Bibles for the pulpit and altar, prayer desk, chancel lights, Bible stand, cross and communion rail. Work on the new installations started last May.

The altar of imported Italian marble was designed by Walter G. Wippern, St. Louis architect.

The new organ, with 22 ranks of pipes, will be played tomorrow by Robert Oldham, organist and director of music of University Church. The old organ, which is replaced, was the one used in "The Miracle," Max Reinhart's theatrical spectacle, which was produced here in 1925 at the old Coliseum, Washington boulevard and Jefferson avenue. The organ was dismantled and installed in the church.

University Methodist Church was founded in 1909, when 12 charter members met in the home of Frederick Vierling, 6255 Waterman boulevard. One of the men present at the meeting was E. G. Lewis, founder and first mayor of University City.

The new congregation engaged as its first pastor a young graduate of Chicago University, the Rev. Ivan Lee Holt. Afterwards, he was pastor of St. John's Methodist Church, 1918-1938, and was elected bishop of the Methodist Church in 1938. Bishop Holt retired in 1956 and was succeeded by Bishop Frank.

University Church had no home of its own for four years. The congregation worshiped for 14 months in the Art Building, University City, then in rented halls.

In 1913, a chapel was built at the present location. The lot cost $12,000 and the building $50,000. The chapel was made possible largely through a gift from the St. Louis philanthropist Samuel Cupples, who was not a member of University Church. The chapel was named after him. The congregation had only 81 members when the chapel was started.

By 1925 the church had 300 members, so the present church was built at a cost of $178,000. The present membership is more than 1400.

The Rev. Dr. John F. Casky, pastor emeritus of University Church, served as pastor from 1925 to 1951, when he was succeeded by the Rev. Dr. Thomas.

MIDTOWN CHURCH BUYS PROPERTY FOR PARKING

St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church, 2901 Locust boulevard, has bought property immediately west of the monastery at 2913 Locust, to provide patrons of the church more parking facilities. The newly acquired property now includes a two-story building. It will be converted into a parking area, and for other uses of the midtown parish.

Purchase of the property was recommended by Archbishop Joseph E. Ritter, it was announced by the parish.

St. Charles Borromeo Church is conducted by the Capuchin Franciscan Fathers. The Rev. Joseph Adams O.F.M., Cap., is the pastor.

The annual report of the parish for 1958 shows that Holy Communion was distributed to a total of 29,960 communicants. In 1950, when the Capuchin Fathers took charge of the parish, there were only 1675 communicants. There are only 25 Catholic families in the parish.

Recently a permanent Nativity Shrine was installed in the church.

The major source of funds for the parish is an annual dinner concert. The first dinner concert, in 1953, brought receipts of $1500. The 1959 concert, given in January, brought net receipts of $25,163.10. Ordinary receipts in 1958 were $29,435.67.

Support for Cervantes.

Comptroller John H. Poelker announced today that he would support Cervantes for Democratic nomination for the board presidency.

Pointing to Cervantes's recrecord as a civic leader, insurance executive and alderman, Poelker asserted Cervantes has "the necessary background and stature to assume the presidency of the board, which brings with it the responsibility of membership on the Board of Estimate and Apportionment and the necessity of acting as Mayor in the Mayor's absence from the city.

"As a business owner Cervantes is well aware that the city, the area's largest service business, can only serve its citizens to the extent of its revenue sources, and that in matters of revenue raising, city officials must face the test of public confidence in their programs of taxes and public expenditures.

"As a civic leader, Cervantes has been able to feel the pulse of the citizens and has gained much knowledge that can guide his thinking in decisions that shape the future of St. Louis as a progressive city and a part of the metropolitan area.

"As an alderman, he has come to grips with many of the city's most pressing problems and for the most part has met them with intelligent thinking and objective decisions."

Harris Repeats Charges.

Harris, in a talk before the Teamsters Union community stewards' assembly last night, repeated his charges that Cervantes "has voted consistently for nuisance taxes and property tax increases," and that he is supported "by the Chamber of Commerce, Downtown in St. Louis and other big interests, many of whose leaders live in St. Louis County."

Louis W. Buckowitz, Tenth Ward Democratic committeeman, announced today that the ward organization had indorsed Harris for the nomination.

Buckowitz said: "After careful consideration we feel Mr. Harris has the superior record in the Board of Aldermen and has fought courageously for the working man and the small business man."

96 STUDENTS ARE GIVEN AWARDS FOR ART WORK

Gold keys and certificates of merit for outstanding artistic achievement were awarded today to 96 high school students in ceremonies at the Stix, Baer & Fuller Co. downtown store.

The students were winners of a regional art competition, co-sponsored by the company and Scholastic Magazine. The students are from eastern Missouri and Madison and St. Clair counties in Illinois.

The winning art works will be entered in a national competition to be held in New York in April.

Macmillan

know that if tanks advanced on Berlin from the West they would encounter tanks and something even more powerful," Mikoyan said. He said he told Royall he was glad he was no longer army secretary.

British sources in Moscow reacted sharply to the Mikoyan speech, saying it was the Russians and not Macmillan who started with the sweets and then got bitter.

One British official said Mikoyan appeared to be trying to saddle Macmillan with the blame for the deterioration in the talks which followed Krushchev's speech.

Besides Mikoyan, Macmillan's official welcoming party included Leningrad's Mayor Nikolai Smirnov and a guard of honor of 200 crack troops from the Leningrad garrison.

Western diplomats were speculating that Russia's reply to the West's call for a foreign ministers' meeting will be forthcoming shortly — perhaps even before Macmillan flies home Tuesday.

Khrushchev has made it clear repeatedly, and most recently in his speech in Moscow Tuesday, that he wants a summit meeting and not a foreign ministers' meeting.

In Bonn, West German leaders expressed concern over Macmillan's apparent willingness to accept the idea of a new summit meeting. They oppose summit talks, fearing that President Eisenhower would be out-talked by Khrushchev.

(Official sources in Paris said it is unlikely that President Charles de Gaulle would be willing to take part in a summit meeting set up on Russia's terms.)

bottom (of the ocean) and there was a break in her trawling cable that could have been caused by snagging of the bottom," said Sheely. "The ship was about one-third full of fish."

Sheely said "I believe it definitely possible and probably quite likely the trawler had something to do with breaking the cables — I don't know whether accidentally or intentionally."

Sheely disclosed that the day before his men went aboard a plane was sent out by the cable and telephone companies warning the trawler away from the area.

The plane's crew dropped a message written in English and Russian which, he said, advised the Russians in effect, "Stop fishing here. You have cut the cable four times. Stop fishing here and go south."

The Russians got the message, Sheely said, and showed it to the boarding party on request but the trawler did not leave the area until directed to by the United States Navy the next day.

The Russians, he said, showed no hostility but "they were not socially inclined; they made us no offer of such things as cigarettes or coffee."

Sheely said the trawler "carried equipment you would expect to find aboard such a vessel."

The only things that seemed unusual to him were a sounding cable 2500 to 3000 feet long and the amount of radio equipment. But authorities later discounted any significance to the sounding cable.

East St. Louis

subpenas, offenders should be haled into court, he declared.

Winding up a prolonged investigation of the way in which construction of the East St. Louis Senior High School was handled, the grand jury said that every school district in St. Clair county should make public its construction or remodeling costs.

Original plans for the $4,200,000 high school called for steel doors. A switch to 396 wooden doors increased the building cost by $68,455, it was disclosed.

The investigation, carried on by eight grand juries, brought two indictments. Edwin G. Barmann, former member of the East St. Louis Board of Education, was charged with omission of duty and malfeasance, but the indictment was dismissed last month by Circuit Judge Richard T. Carter, who held that the charge was vague and insufficient. A perjury indictment is pending against Jacob J. Altman, the general contractor.

2 ON ANTI-RHEE PAPER INDICTED IN SOUTH KOREA

SEOUL, Feb. 28 (AP)—A Seoul publisher and an editorial writer of the newspaper Kyung Hyang Shinmoon, supporting the minority Democratic party, have been indicted on charges of libel and advocating a rebellion.

The government prosecutor filed charges yesterday against publisher Han Chang Woo, who is a Democratic party member of the National Assembly, and editorial writer and acting editor in chief Choo Yu Han.

These are the first charges filed against members of the press since the political crisis in South Korea began late last year over the controversial new security law. The newspaper charged the indictments were "a serious threat to the freedom of the press."

ANTI-WAR STAND BY TITO

DAMASCUS, Feb. 28 (AP)—Visiting President Josip (Tito) Broz yesterday pledged Yugoslavia as an ally of Asian-African countries in efforts to "remove the threat of war from the world's neck."

Speaking at Aleppo he said the threat of war still exists and all should work together to remove it. With him on the balcony of Government House as he spoke was President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

Weather to Be Mild Through Monday

FORECAST
—Associated Press Wirephoto
Low temperatures and areas of precipitation expected tonight.

Somewhat higher temperatures are expected in the St. Louis area tomorrow with mild weather continuing through Monday, the Weather Bureau said today.

Mild late winter weather prevailed in most sections of the nation today. Temperatures were considerably higher in parts of the upper Mississippi Valley.

Snow up to two inches fell in scattered areas in the Great Lakes region. Showers extended southwestward from the Great Lakes into Oklahoma with more than half an inch reported in the Oklahoma City area. Light rain continued in parts of Florida northward along the south Atlantic coast, but generally fair weather prevailed from California into western Texas and in most of the northeast.

Rain was forecast for tomorrow in the northwest Pacific area and southern and middle Atlantic states, as indicated by the above map. Snow was forecast in the northern Rockies, northern and eastern Great Lakes region and northern Appalachians.

Lowest temperature in the nation this morning was 25 below zero at Presque Isle, Me. Minimums in Missouri ranged from 26 at St. Joseph to 56 at Joplin. Yesterday's high was 89 at West Palm Beach, Fla.

Degree-days in the St. Louis area yesterday, 12; the month, 793; the season, 3794.

Pettit and Hagan Pull Near N.B.A. Record as Hawks Drub Nats

Their 3366 Points 26 From Best Pair Total

By Harold Flachsbart

Bob Pettit and Cliff Hagan, the best one-two punch in professional basketball today, are within 27 points of breaking another National Basketball Association record, if there weren't enough marks established yesterday afternoon at Boston.

The two Hawk frontline stars, with 3366 points between them this season, could set a new high for most points by two players on the same team when the Hawks play at Cincinnati tonight. The record for a one-two scoring punch is 3392, established by Paul Arizin and Neil Johnston for Philadelphia in the 1956-57 campaign.

The jump-shooting Pettit, wowing a St. Louis television (KSD-TV) audience in Falstaff's annual "Salute to the Hawks," scored 35 points and Hagan 25 last night as the Hawks trounced the Syracuse Nationals, 128-113, at Kiel Auditorium.

Short Game for Hagan.

Hagan might have added more had he not been ejected from the game by Referee Norm Drucker midway in the third period after his second technical foul of the evening.

The first "T," as they refer to these fouls that don't count in the personal column, came in the first quarter for what Drucker referred to as "comments unbecoming to a college man." The comments must have been even more sizzling the second time. Ed Macauley, whose coaching record now is 39-16 and a nearly perfect 21-1 at home, also drew a technical.

Both sides were unhappy with the officiating and Paul Seymour of the Nats once yelled at Referee Arnie Heft, "Why don't you put the ball in the basket for 'em?" But he didn't draw a "T."

On the floor play, the Hawks had a tremendous first half. From a 11-12 deficit, they outscored the Nats, 9 to 1, in one hot streak and after Syracuse managed a free throw and a fielder, the Hawks made 13 straight points to gain a 33-15 lead. Thus they had outscored the tired visitors by a 22-3 margin.

Pettit hit 10 of 13 field goal tries in the first half and had 23 points in 21 minutes' work. Hagan had 17 points and the St. Louis team, already assured of the Western Division title, hit a remarkable 52.8 per cent of its shots. Syracuse played the Hawks on nearly even terms in the second half—but school already was out.

Schayes Held to 10.

Coach Macauley pointed out that much credit for the victory must go to the Hawks' tight defense against Dolph Schayes, one of the top career scorers in the N.B.A. Schayes was held to three points in the first half, 10 altogether.

"It was a good team effort even with Pettit popping in 35," said Macauley. "Dugie Martin and Jack McMahon did a good job of leading our fast break and Clyde Lovellette had another good night both in floor play and scoring. His passing was exceptional."

Lovellette made 17 points in 16 minutes of service, had four assists and six rebounds. Pettit grabbed 15 off the boards, Charley Share 13 and Hub Reed nine but Syracuse outrebounded the home team, 75 to 69.

Here for the first time in a Syracuse uniform was George Yardley, former Detroit scoring star whose record of 2001 points last season Pettit is rapidly approaching. Even with a bandaged left arm and hand, the Bird has lost none of his touch. Yardley popped in 30 points in a 31-minute playing stint.

Attendance, held down by the telecast, was announced as 5594.

The Hawks will return from Cincinnati for a game against the Celtics at Kiel Auditorium at 1:30 tomorrow afternoon. The contest will be nationally-televised but blacked out in St. Louis, as per N.B.A. rules. All reserved seats have been sold but 800 general admission tickets went on sale today at the Dick Esser Agency in the Arcade Building. . . . The Hawks and Boston are 4-4 for the winter.

Now Podoloff Will Investigate

On their way to a record score of 173 to 139, players of the Boston Celtics and Minneapolis Lakers grab for a rebounding ball. JIM LOSCUTOFF of the Celtics takes the ball from ELGIN BAYLOR of the Lakers (behind), as GENE CONLEY (17) of Celtics and JIM KREBS (32) of Lakers watch. The professional basketball game yesterday at Boston produced so many points N.B.A. President Maurice Podoloff announced he will call for a special report.

Celts 173, Lakers 139; Seven Marks Bettered

BOSTON, Feb. 28 (UPI)—The Eastern Division champion Boston Celtics hooked up with the torrid Minneapolis Lakers yesterday in a fantastic, free-wheeling National Basketball Association contest and when the dust died down seven all-time league records were shattered.

The score: Boston 173, Minneapolis 139.

It was the highest score ever recorded in basketball history.

The Celtics cracked four NBA marks with the amazing point production including most points in a game by one team (173), most points in a half (90), most points in a quarter (52) and most field goals (72).

The Lakers, who had won five of their last six games, helped break two more records—most points in a game (312) and most points by a losing team (139).

To complete the rout, Boston's Bob Cousy chipped in with 28 assists to break Richie Guerin's old mark of 21.

Boston's total points topped the old mark of 146 by the St. Louis Hawks last season against Syracuse by plenty—27 points.

It also was 19 points above the all-time college scoring mark set by Furman against The Citadel in 1955.

The two teams' 312 snapped the record set when St. Louis downed the Nats, 146-136, Dec. 21, 1957, for a 282 total.

The highest scoring game ever recorded by college teams was when the University of Baltimore defeated Catholic University, 146-121, for a 267-point total.

Sheboygan held the old NBA field goals record with 61 scored against Denver in 1950.

The game was played before 12,315 fans.

Tommy Heinsohn led all scorers with 43 points. Cousy had 31, while rookie Elgin Baylor paced Minneapolis with 28.

N.B.A. President Maurice Podoloff was shocked when he heard the result and said he would query officials of both teams to determine whether defensive assignments were faithfully carried out or whether the teams "were goofing off."

"173 to 139?" cried Podoloff in disbelief, when told the result. "That's unbelievable!"

Three New Marks in Swim Meet

Three records were set in the preliminaries of the annual state high school meet yesterday in University City's new pool. Finals of the meet will be held tonight, starting at 8 o'clock in the pool near the senior high school just off Hanley road.

Thayer Ashton of Ladue repeated his victory in the 100-yard breast stroke with a time of 1:13.4. His winning time in the new event last year was 1:14.2.

Robert Florida of Roosevelt lowered the 400-yard free style mark to 4 minutes 48.5 seconds. The old mark, 4:55.6, was set by Bill Brackmann of Ladue in the preliminaries last year, the first time the event was held.

The Webster Groves team of Bashford, Murdock, McIntosh and Menke turned in a 1:57.4 for a new 200-yard medley relay mark. The old record was set last year by Soldan's combination of Kern, Schaap, Torns and Fischback.

Goalby Is In Fourth Place Tie

BATON ROUGE, La., Feb. 28 (UPI)—John McMullin of Fair Oak, Calif., entered the second day of championship play in the $15,000 Baton Rouge golf open tournament here today with a two-stroke lead over a formidable field of many of the nation's top golfers.

McMullin set the pace yesterday when he fired a scorching seven-under-par 65. Putting beautifully, he toured the front nine in 33 strokes and came in with a 32.

The Californian had 10 one-putt greens and birdied nine holes. He had bogies on only two holes.

Tied for second place with 67s were Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., and Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex.

Palmer registered a 32 over the front nine, tying for the lowest score of the day for that distance with McMullin and Dave Thomas of London. Thomas scored his 32 after a slow start. He settled for a 69 first-day score.

Scoring 68 for a fourth-place tie were Bob Goalby of Belleville, Ill.; Paul Harney of Worchester, Mass, and Mike Souchak of Grossinger, N.Y.

Armstrong Gains His 17th Win

NEW YORK, Feb. 28 (UPI)—Unbeaten Gene (Ace) Armstrong was so impressive while registering his seventeenth straight victory last night on a near-shutout decision that he will be matched with Spider Webb, third-ranking middleweight contender, at Madison Square Garden, May 15.

Slender, lightning-fast Armstrong of Elizabeth, N.J., beat Italo Scortichini, champion of Italy, by an official 9-1, 9-1, 9-1 score in their 10-round TV fight at the Garden.

All three ring officials gave only the second round to the wild-swinging, black-haired Italian, who weighed 161 pounds to Armstrong's 157¾. Armstrong was favored at 1 to 4.

Had Armstrong been a harder hitter, he surely would have stopped his awkward opponent, who was groggy in the fourth and sixth rounds from a head battering—particularly from "reverse one-two's."

In a reverse one-two, the right fist is thrown first and followed almost simultaneously by the left. Only an extremely fast man can use that combination because leading with the right usually is a "sucker punch."

Vancouver Awarded Figure Skates Meet

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Feb. 28 (AP)—The 1960 world figure skating championships will be held in Vancouver, British Columbia, it was learned yesterday.

No official announcement has yet been made, but skating officials said plans were to hold the meet March 2 through March 5 in order to catch most of the athletes returning from the winter Olympic Games at Squaw Valley, Calif.

St. Louis Golfer, Partner Score 75

PINEHURST, S.C., Feb. 28—Joseph T. Strubinger of St. Louis, and his partner, C. P. White of Oak Hill, W.Va., had a qualifying score of 75 in the Pinehurst Country Club senior four-ball tourney.

James H. McAlvin, Lake Forest, Ill., and Thomas C. Robbins, Pinehurst, paced the qualifiers with 72.

New Haven in Final

New Haven High, the Missouri Class S basketball champion, advanced to the final of the Hermann regional tourney with a 65 to 57 victory over Lincoln U. High. In other contest, Elsberry defeated New Bloomfield, 74-64.

Cleveland Team 2nd In A.B.C. Tourney

By John J. Archibald

Another wave of challengers for the Open team division title had their fling last night at the Detroit Pfeiffers' lead in the American Bowling Congress tournament, but the record 3243 total rolled Wednesday by the Michigan five remained best by far.

A tested S. & Z. Tool and Die team from Cleveland, with all-star Walter Ward in the anchor position, got off to an impressive start with a 1076 game (84 pins better than the Pfeiffers' opener), but the Ohioans couldn't maintain that pace and eventually finished with 3063. The score gave them the No. 2 spot in the standings, but it is generally expected that other clubs will come much closer to the Pfeiffers' total before the tournament at the 138th Infantry Armory ends on April 26.

Bowling will continue today with doubles and singles competition in the daylight hours and team events at 7 and 9:30 p.m.

Among the more noteworthy teams on the later squad are Detroit's Detail Tool and Machinery quintet, with such stars as Therm Gibson, Fred Bujack and Bob Kweicien in the lineup, and the Wisconsin Ice and Coal team from Milwaukee. Ray Schanen included an 837 in the Milwaukee team's 3661 earlier in the season and since then Schanen has rolled an 843.

Another of the teams on tonight's 9:30 squad will be the Pellins, of St. Louis, a club which finished seventh in last year's A.B.C., but whose lineup has undergone great changes since then.

Although the handful of St. Louis teams that competed yesterday failed to make the top 10, Bill Pace of Authorized Brake and Billy Welu of Falstaff added luster to their pin records. Pace shot 654 in the team competition to give him a fourth-best all-events total of 1941 and Welu's 686 in the singles placed him fourth in that division.

The other Falstaff members bowled well but not spectacularly. Welu and Harry Smith combined for a 1201 doubles score. Buzz Fazio had an 1828 all-events and Steve Nagy finished with 1804 after a 661 start in the team event.

Welu's 1878 in the all-events enabled the tall St. Louisan to establish an A.B.C. record for five consecutive years of competition, 212 with a 41-pin carryover. This was Welu's tenth A.B.C. and his average over that span is 202-84, almost certain to be among the top 10 for all A.B.C. entrants when this meet is complete.

Bill Flynn, of the Cleveland S. and Z. team shot a 714 score to give him a running start at Eddie Lubanski's 2116 all-events score.

Hemus and Devine Agree Musial Will Need Rest

By J. Roy Stockton

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 28—Stan Musial, his Manager Solly Hemus and General Manager Bing Devine are in agreement that Stan the Man, probably the greatest ball player ever to wear a Cardinal uniform, has reached the stage where somebody must take a firm stand during the 1959 season to make sure he gets occasional rest.

Hemus and Devine were asked yesterday, while everybody was waiting vainly for rainy skies to clear, if any plans had been formulated to see that the 38-year-old star didn't wear himself out by too much work.

It's not an easy thing to handle. Stan is a great team man and might hesitate in the heat of the pennant race to bench himself. Hemus, sympathetic, is still human and a manager. It might be difficult for him, with Stan hitting well and the race hot, to take such a star out of the lineup.

A general manager wants to win, too, and usually he leaves field activities and decisions up to a manager. But Devine realizes, too, Musial can't play every day.

"I think we can get around it all right," was Musial's quick reply when asked about the problem. "There's no sense trying to kid yourself."

Would Stan have the firmness to take himself out when he felt it would be a chore to play any given day?

"Yes, I think so," he said. "I'll talk it all over with Solly and I'm sure he understands. What I'd like to do first is cut down on my work here in spring training."

Hemus also expressed confidence that there would be no serious problem.

"I know he has to be rested now and then," he explained. "And I know that while I'll talk it over with Stan, the final decision will have to be mine.

"Last year Stan was in 137 of the season's 154 games. I figure 100 or maybe at most 125 games, including those when he just pinch-hits, will be as much as we can expect from Stan. I agree that he musn't play in both games of doubleheaders and I'll try to rest him, too, in day games after night games."

Last season, most observers agreed, the second game of a mid-season doubleheader was the straw that broke the Musial back. He played and it was too much for the tired muscles. Something gave and Stan wasn't a great player—not a Musial—through the rest of the pennant race.

The skies were clearing last evening and Hemus hoped to start his two-workouts-a-day program in earnest today. Tomorrow there'll be just one drill, everybody reporting at 1 o'clock, to give the athletes time to attend church.

Kinloch, Wellston In Final

By Bob Ruhl

Wellston, unseeded and unheralded though it is the defending champion, will play Kinloch's impressive Braves in the Class M basketball regional final at Pacific tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

The odds, of course, favor Kinloch, 26-5 for the season after disposing of Coyle, 66-53 in the semifinals last night. But the Trojans, a nickname synonomous in history with trickery, have played stunts on the Braves before and without using the hollow horse that the citizens of ancient Troy used to conquer Athens.

Last year, as Kinloch fans recall, the Trojans defeated the Braves to win the Class M championship. And like the sagacious elephant, the Braves remember only too well.

Wellston worked into the final by virtue of a 70-58 victory over the tournament's host team. Finishing its North County League schedule with a 3-5 record—good enough for a fifth place tie with Fairview—the Trojans were rated just another team in the Pacific Regionals.

Just another team until the Trojans knocked off second-seeded Duchesne, 59-53, Wednesday night. Last night Wellston went ahead of Pacific 10-8 at the first quarter mark and won easily, holding Pacific's 5-9 Wayne Clark to 16 points. Clark had scored 27 points in the second half Wednesday night to help Pacific defeat St. Francis De Sales, 63-61, in a thriller.

Kinloch, rolling easily in its previous tourney encounters, had little trouble downing fourth seeded Coyle as each team used only five players.

The Braves led 17-15 at halftime but scored sixteen points in the second quarter to Coyle's six. From there the Braves shot away with Roscoe Wilder leading the scoring parade with 35 points.

In the consolidation game tonight at 7 o'clock, Coyle will play Pacific.

Florissant Valley Wins Baptist Title

Joe Smith poured in 31 points and Paul Mason 28 to lead Florissant Valley to a 78-73 victory over Fourth last night in the senior men's championship game of the Baptist Basketball League playoffs.

Fairview won over Rock Hill, 74-61, for consolition honors. The games were played at St. James gym.

Corpus Christi Wins

Ray Reinhold's goal in the first half gave Corpus Christi a 1 to 0 victory over St. Louis U. High and the championship in Class B of the St. Louis district high school soccer tourney. The game was played at Forest Park. In the consolation final, C.B.C. won from Country Day, 2-0.

Billikens Seek 18th Victory

Looking for their eighteenth victory, which would be their eleventh in 12 home games this basketball season, St. Louis University's Billikens will play University of Wichita this afternoon at Kiel Auditorium.

The 2 p.m. contest will be carried over a 30-station television network in the midwest and southwest, but will be blacked out here.

In an earlier Missouri Valley Conference meeting at Wichita, St. Louis trimmed the Wichita team by a 75-72 score, and the Billikens are favored to win again.

With an 8-3 league record in a 17-4 season so-far, the Bills are virtually out of the race for the conference title. Cincinnati, leading with a 10-0 mark, and Bradley, 9-2, are the main contenders.

Houston, which upset the Billikens a week ago at Houston, is to play at Cincinnati and North Texas State is at Bradley in games tonight.

Missouri, which defeated Oklahoma State earlier this season, will try to repeat the performance at Stillwater, while Illinois will play at Iowa tonight in a Big Ten game. The Illini have a chance to finish second in their league, but Missouri is fighting to stay out of the Big Eight cellar.

Columbia And Lincoln Win Finals

Columbia and Lincoln of Venice, both among the powerful high-record teams in Illinois, last night won places in separate basketball regionals that will start next week.

Columbia, now 28-1, outscored Waterloo, 24-23, in the final quarter to win, 77-74, in the Waterloo district. The Eagles will enter the East St. Louis regional against Belleville Cathedral Wednesday at 8:30 p.m.

Lincoln earned a berth in the Wood River regional with an overpowering 65-42 victory over Troy in the winner's district. Lincoln, now 20-3, allowed Troy only nine points at halftime and led by 15 points.

Columbia, in winning the closely fought contest, increased its season's record to 3-1 over Waterloo, which defeated the Eagles 66-64 in the Kaskaskia Conference Tournament.

Lincoln of Venice will meet Collinsville in the Wood River Regional Tuesday night at 8:30 o'clock.

St. Louis Concordia In Tourney Final

Concordia Seminary of St. Louis defeated Concordia of Springfield, Ill., 77 to 51, and River Forest, Ill. won from Seward, Nebr., 72-69, in the opening games of the Concordia Invitational basketball tourney on the Preachers' court, last night.

The winners play in the final tonight, with the losers playing for third place.

Webster, Beaumont Win Titles

St. Charles Loses in Overtime

By Harold Tuthill

St. Charles High today might be boasting of its second successive Big Ten Suburban League basketball crown had big De Wayne Bond dunked a charity shot where it would do the most good — in the second overtime period of last night's game between St. Charles and Webster Groves. He missed and so did the Pirates as they went down to a 57-56 defeat before a roaring crowd in Roberts Memorial gymnasium.

Bond, the 6-8 giant with an average of almost 25 points per game, kept Gene Bartow's Pirates in the running with two goals in the first overtime that put St. Charles on even terms with Webster, 55-55. This came after a Pirate strategem almost worked. They called time out with just seconds of the regulation time left. They passed the ball into Larry Scott whose scoring effort hung on the rim then fell off the wrong way for St. Charles backers. Both teams scored four points in the first extra three minutes.

In the sudden death overtime Bond had a chance to win on a two-shot foul, but he missed the first opportunity. He made the second and St. Charles led, 56-55. Shortly after that Charles Redmon of Webster was fouled in the act of shooting. His first successful effort squared accounts and his second, likewise good, enabled Tyke Yates's Statesmen to hit the jackpot.

Unbeaten in League.

They became the new Suburban champions with a 9-0 record. They improved their over-all performance to 22-1 on the eve of the regional eliminations. That's their best showing since the 1953 days of Jim Krebs when they took a 25-0 record to Columbia.

Webster had to share the spotlight with others, however. Beaumont became the new Public High champion, McBride came back to earn a tie in the Catholic Athletic Conference just as it did in football and Lutheran Central, in its first season in the ABC, pulled up to a tie with Western Military Academy, each with a final 6-2 mark.

Beaumont had to struggle throughout the first half when the score was tied four times and Tom Stanton's Bluejackets trailed by seven points at one stage before they defeated Sumner, 56-42, in a turn-away crowd of some 2500 at Hadley Tech.

Eight Straight Free Throws.

Eight straight free throws brought Beaumont from a 23-16 deficit to a 24-23 lead in the second quarter. At the half the Jackets were ahead, 27-25, and there they stayed for their ninth title under Stanton.

The victory gave Beaumont a 9-1 league record to 8-2 for Sumner and an over-all mark of 19-2 for the Jackets.

McBride was a 64-61 victor over Du Bourg in the wildly cheering jam at Du Bourg. The result precipitated the Catholic Athletic Conference race into an 8-2 ending, thereby forcing Du Bourg, the 1958 winner, to share the crown. Oddly enough, McBride beat Du Bourg on the final day of the football season to cause a three-way tie with St. Mary's.

Lutheran took command early over Country Day and went on to win, 65-47, in the ABC wrapup that put the winners on the top rung with Western. Paul Lange topped Lutheran with 24 points.

Herrin's Win Streak Is Broken

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill., Feb. 28 (AP)—Previously undefeated Herrin lost its final basketball game of the season, 46-44, to West Frankfort's Redbirds.

Herrin, rated No. 1 in The Associated Press poll, finished the season with a 25-1 record.

Ron Hood, sensational forward, who made the West Frankfort lineup only in his senior year, led the victors with 15 points. Ron Ward was high for Herrin with 14.

Herrin had a chance to tie the score with 8 seconds remaining. But Ron Williams of Herrin missed his first free throw in a 1-1 bonus situation.

West Frankfort, unrated in the AP poll, had a mediocre season and was defeated previously by Herrin.

COMIC-BOOK BIBLE STORY CRITICIZED IN VATICAN PAPER

VATICAN CITY, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Vatican newspaper Osservatore Romano expressed "a sense of profound uneasiness" yesterday over an Italian version of the Bible using comic book techniques.

The comment came after Jewish communities and others complained about the publication, which used photographs of scantily-clad models.

The Bible story is being told in a "fumetti," which means "little smoke," referring to the conversation-encircling balloons — resembling puffs of smoke—in the pictures.

Milan's Roman Catholic Curia approved to the first three installments of the "fumetti" Bible story, published by a Milan firm. The Curia later said it would consider the matter further, in the light of protests, before approving further installments.

Osservatore Romano, in the first comment from a Vatican source, said the publication "translates the most excellent Book of humanity into the flat and scurrilous language heard too often in our times. . . .

"The captions are worthy of the pictures by the humiliating simplism which they lend to them," something much different from true simplicity."

V.F.W. ADVICE ON BERLIN

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 28 (AP) — John W. Mahan, commander-in-chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, urged President Eisenhower yesterday to evacuate the wives and children of all service men stationed in West Berlin.

"It is time we make it vividly clear to the Soviet leaders that we intend to defend West Berlin at all costs," Mahan said.

Statement of The Globe-Democrat

To effect greater economy and efficiency in mechanical operation, The Globe-Democrat today entered into an agreement with the St. Louis Post-Dispatch under which The Globe-Democrat will be printed by the Post-Dispatch, when and if the Guild strike is settled.

The sale is of the physical property only. The editorial, advertising, circulation and business departments of the two newspapers will be entirely separate. The Globe-Democrat will continue as a completely independent newspaper in every sense of the word.

The consolidation of mechanical operations between competing newspapers finds great precedent in many cities throughout America, a list which we suspect may grow larger in the future as the mechanical costs of publishing a daily newspaper continue to rise. The editorial, advertising, circulation and business independence of these newspapers has not in any way been affected. I assure you that it will not be affected in St. Louis.

This move is made necessary because of the demands of the St. Louis Newspaper Guild. The third and by far the least expensive proposal of the Guild would cost this newspaper, as I have pointed out several times in the past week, approximately $550,000 a year for 20 years for all our employees. This newspaper has never made as much as $550,000 a year profit in the years that I have been in St. Louis nor in the previous years stretching back to the boom days of the war. There are no prospects in the forseeable future for making profits in this amount.

We have offered the Guild in the past a retirement plan with every conceivable guarantee that Globe-Democrat employees under Guild jurisdiction would continue to receive amounts when they retire at least equal to those they would receive under the Pulitzer Pension Plan. We repeat that offer. We believe this, with guarantees in writing, would be acceptable to the overwhelming number of our employees presently on strike, if it were available to them by vote by secret ballot. We repeat these assurances to our employees now.

In addition, all Globe-Democrat employees, Guild and non-Guild, presently on the retired list will be continued under the present plan with all present benefits for their lifetime.

If members of the mechanical unions all cannot be employed elsewhere, the dismissal provisions of the current mechanical contracts will apply.

The Globe-Democrat is proud of its record of 107 years of public service. Many people, and especially during the past week during which they have been deprived of their Globe-Democrat, have told us that The Globe-Democrat is greatly needed in St. Louis and in the nation and that their lives are poorer without it.

I can assure you that The Globe-Democrat will continue in the future, as it has in the past, as an independent newspaper and as a mighty force for good in St. Louis, in Missouri and in America.

Optical Illusion of Moon

By Ramon Coffman

AN OLD QUESTION is raised by Alvia S. Francis, who writes:

"Why does the moon look to be larger as it comes up than it does a few hours later?"

The seeming change in size is a puzzling thing. When the moon is low on the horizon, it seems to be much larger than after it rises some distance in the sky.

The same optical illusion is observed in the case of the sun, but people are careful to save their eyes by merely glancing at the bright-shining sun while it is above the horizon.

Scientists have measured the moon at different times of the night. They have found that it keeps the same size.

One theory is that there is a distortion when light comes from the horizon through many hundreds of miles of thick air. When the moon shines from a point high in the sky, the light passes through only a few miles of air which can be called "thick."

Another explanation is this: When the moon is low on the horizon, our eyes tend to compare it with earthly objects, as trees or hills. When it is high in the sky, the earthly objects are far from its rim.

You might make a few tests of the moon in which you hold a dime at a certain distance. If you close one eye, the dime will barely cover the moon. The "certain distance" may be the full length of your outstretched arm. Whatever it is, keep track of it. Make the test on a full moon low on the horizon. A few hours later, when the moon is high in the sky, see whether it is necessary to hold the dime as far from your open eye.

For SCIENCE section of your scrapbook.

NANCY—By Ernie Bushmiller

SIDE GLANCES—By Galbraith

"If you hate yes-men, I'd fit right into your organization!"

LAUGH IT OFF

"You guys got a search warrant?"
